

Military Family Consent Form 2024-2025

Dear Yelm Community Schools Families,

The Department of Defense (DOD), in cooperation with the Yelm Community Schools District, is providing a service available in select Yelm schools to students whose parents/guardians are in the military. The Military and Family Life Counselor (MFLC)'s role is to provide non-medical counseling support. The aim is to increase resiliency skills for students to navigate lifespan and situational stressors that may be related to military-connected experience. This program is open to all branches of active duty, Reserve, Guard, and recently separated from service members and their families. The attached memorandum describes the program and some of the services available.

Our MFLCs have had experience working with children and adolescents, as well as military families. They are available to provide support to students, ranging from brief check-ins to individual or group meetings. All services are voluntary and confidential (with the exception of mandatory reporting laws described in the memorandum). There is no assumption that military students have problems and need formal counseling. The MFLC program is designed to be a positive and proactive program to help strengthen resiliency skills and provide supports if needed. Our MFLCs are also available to support parents, families, as well as consult with staff around student concerns, identify community resources, and ultimately support your efforts to encourage your student.

The enclosed form invites you and your family to participate in this program. Your participation is anonymous, these consent forms are kept within the school and not shared with the DOD. Once you have returned the signed form to the school, your child may begin utilizing this service.

Thank you – and thanks to you for your service to our country.

Kind regards,

FROM: Yelm Community Schools

SUBJECT: Parent Acknowledgement and Consent Letter for Child and Youth Behavioral Military and Family Life Counseling Services

We take this opportunity to inform you of a valuable resource provided by the Department of Defense. Due to the unique challenges military members face and the impact they have on families, the Office of Military Community and Family Policy provides Child and Youth Behavioral Military Family Life Counselors (CYB-MFLCs). CYB-MFLCs have advanced degrees (masters or doctoral-level) in the mental health field and specialized training in child and youth development. They support the needs of children and families by partnering with parents, faculty, counselors and staff to foster healthy growth and social skill development. The well-being and safety of your child is our top priority. To ensure a comprehensive continuum of care for your child, CYB-MFLCS may work in collaboration with school or program professionals. CYB-MFLCs address challenging behaviors and strengthen the capacity of staff, families, programs and systems to meet the needs of military children and youth by:

- Observing, participating and engaging in classroom activities:
- Developing strategies for supporting positive behavior, age-appropriate behavioral interventions to enhance coping and behavioral skills in the classrooms and at home.
- Meeting one-on-one or in groups, providing evidence-based prevention and intervention services.
- Implementing and modeling strategies for teacher and staff responses to children's behavior
- Conducting trainings for staff.
- Facilitating groups to increase parents' understanding of social emotional development and positive behavior guidance strategies.
- Linking families with community resources or military family programs.
- Working with military children in settings such as field trips and other center, camp, or school sponsored activities.
- Conducting individual sessions to address the unique challenges of school-aged military children and youth.

At no time will the CYB-MFLC meet individually with a child without being in line of sight of a teacher, staff, or a parent/guardian. CYB-MFLCs are mandated reporters and information provided to the CYB-MFLC will be kept confidential, except to meet legal obligations or to prevent harm to self or others. Legal obligations include requirements of law and DoD or military regulations. Harm to self or others includes suicidal thought or intent, a desire to harm oneself, domestic violence, child abuse or neglect, violence against any person, and any present or future illegal activity. The CYB-MFLC is obligated to follow school and military child and youth programs regulations for reporting safety concerns including problematic sexual behaviors in children and youth.

CYB-MFLCs encourage the participation of parents in decisions that affect their children and strive to empower parents with the knowledge and skills to act in their children's best interest. CYB-MFLCs are flexible and can schedule appointments, meetings and activities after hours and on weekends, if needed, with advance notice. They are available to meet with individuals and families who have interest in seeking consultation about their child or family.

Thank you for allowing us to provide support services to your child/children.

Acknowledgement of Understanding:

I understand the role of the CYB-MFLC and that they may work in collaboration with school or program professionals to ensure a comprehensive continuum of services. I also understand that the CYB-MFLCs are mandated reporters as outlined above.
