PICKLEBALL FESTIVAL 2024

The Shepherd's Center of Northern Virginia invites you to attend this exciting fundraising event on Tuesday, September 17, 4-7 pm at the fabulous Worldgate Athletic Club & Spa, 13037 Worldgate Drive, in Herndon. All levels of play are welcome! Refreshments will be served, there'll be a mocktail bar, a silent auction, a raffle, and a golf simulation lounge. Lots of fun in store for everyone! Registration is now open; visit scnova.org/about/special-events or call 703.281.0538. All proceeds will go to the SCNOVA mission of enriching the lives of older adults in the communities they serve.

BUFFET BREAKFAST NEXT SUNDAY

The American Legion Post 180 will be serving their legendary Breakfast Buffet on Sunday, August 18, 8 am– noon. Located at 330 Center St. N in Vienna, this is an all-you-care-to-eat buffet featuring a wide variety of breakfast treats. My favorites are the blueberry pancakes and Shirley's homemade sausage gravy and biscuits. Besides being delicious, this meal is an incredible bargain at only $12 for adults, $5 for kids under 12. Pay with cash or check; no credit cards accepted. Proceeds will be used for children's and youth projects and those for veterans.

SUMMER ON THE GREEN

"Sweet Yonder," a country and bluegrass group, will close out this summer music program which is held on the Vienna Town Green. The date is August 23, 6:30 pm. This is free entertainment provided by the Town of Vienna and generous sponsors. In case of bad weather, call the weather line, 703.255.7842 or the Vienna Community Center, 703.255.6360 up to 2 hours before the performance. Bring chairs and blankets, but please leave your pets at home. No alcoholic beverages.

KIDS ON THE GREEN

You and your grandkids have three more opportunities to enjoy this summer program before it ends. Prakriti Dance will bring some storytelling and dancing on August 12. Marsha and the Positrons will provide kids' music on August 20, and Beech Tree Puppets will perform on August 27. All take place at 10 am on the Freeman Store Patio, 131 Church St. NE. Bring chairs or blankets!

PREDATORS TARGET VETERANS

The Veterans Administration is warning about "claim predators" preying on veterans who seek help filing VA benefits claims. The VA says these predators are unaccredited companies or individuals targeting veterans' benefits for profit. The VA offers the following ways to identify them:

- They charge outrageous fees, or require veterans to pay a portion of their VA benefits. Never pay anyone a fee to file an initial claim for benefits.
- They make dishonest promises. Don't trust anyone who says they can help accelerate the process and obtain a 100% disability benefits evaluation.
- They require binding contracts. Never sign one agreeing to pay a percentage of your benefit payment in exchange for help with your claim.

For more information go to www.va.gov and search for "VA accredited representative."

Good Things Happening at OLGC School

SCHOOL STARTS THURSDAY, AUGUST 22ND!

Parents, if you haven't already done so, please complete your online required forms. We need these to complete PowerSchool enrollments and update contact information.

Also, a Diocese of Arlington Appendix F1 Confidential Health Update form 2024 is needed for EACH of your students before the first day of school. This form can be scanned and emailed or brought in person to Mrs. Hallahan. Please contact Mrs. Hallahan with questions. Thank you to those who have already completed this task!

2024-2025 SCHOOL CALENDAR

The 2024-2025 school calendar has been uploaded onto the OLGC School website. You can view the calendar directly at olgcschool.org/about-us/calendar. Viewing the calendar from a desktop or laptop computer will allow you to view the events for a whole month at one time. The most current events can also be found on our main homepage. Additional calendar items will be added as they are scheduled, so check back often.

Thank you!

PLEASE PRAY FOR OLGC SCHOOL TEACHERS AND STUDENTS AS THEY PREPARE FOR THE YEAR AHEAD

While our students and teachers have been away it has been quite busy here this summer! When we welcome our students back to campus on August 22nd, they will see many improvements to our school building. The third phase of the HVAC installation is almost complete. The upstairs classrooms all have new flooring and the classrooms and hallways have been painted—everything looks amazing! The only major project that is still in the works is replacing the carpet in the library. We can't wait for our students and teachers to return so they can marvel at all the incredible improvements. Thank you for the continued support and incredible generosity which made all these improvements possible.

In July, we welcomed our newest members to the OLGC community through the waters of baptism:

REFLEXION SALESIANA

Décimo noveno domingo del tiempo ordinario (agosto 11)

En la primera lectura de hoy San Pablo nos ruega que cambiemos nuestra vida de ira y maldad por una vida de bondad, de compasión y de perdón que se convierta en el sello que nos identifique como hijos de Dios. San Francisco de Sales nos dice cómo podemos pasar de la rabia a la gentileza y la bondad:

Uno de los mejores ejercicios de gentileza que podemos poner en práctica empieza con nosotros mismos. Para poder permitir que la gentileza reine en nuestros corazones, primero debemos dejar de molestarnos por nuestros defectos. Es natural que la razón haga que nos sintamos disgustados y avergonzados cuando cometemos una falta. Sin embargo, no debemos dejar que nuestros corazones se queden empapados de la amargura y el rencor que provienen de nuestro amor propio y egoísta, ese amor que queda desequilibrado al tener que enfrentarse a su propia imperfección. Esto restringe nuestra habilidad para amar.

Cuando estamos enfadados todos creemos que nuestra rabia es justificada. Pero créanme cuando les digo que un padre que reprende a su hijo con dulzura y amor tendrá un efecto más eficaz en él, que aquel que lo hace con rabia y conmoción. Así mismo, cuando nosotros cometemos una falta, si reprendemos a nuestro corazón demostrando más compasión por el que rabia en su contra, el arrepentimiento entrará en nosotros de una manera mucho más efectiva. Si por alguna razón nos dejamos llevar por la ira, repitamos lo siguiente: “Ay de mi pobre corazón, he nos aquí ¡hemos caído en el mismo pozo que con tanta firmeza habíamos resuelto evitar! Bueno, nuestro deber ahora es levantarnos de nuevo y dejarlo para siempre”. Con un gran coraje, con confianza y seguridad en la misericordia de Dios, debemos regresar a la senda de la virtud. Cuando su mente esté en paz dedíquense a construir una reserva de gentileza. Que todas las palabras que digan y todas las cosas que hagan, sean dichas y hechas de la forma más serena que les sea posible. Permanezcan en paz. Nadie es tan santo como para no tener ningún defecto.

Aun así, todos hemos sido llamados a poner en práctica la libertad propia de los hijos de Dios que se saben amados. Ellos escogen libremente cumplir con la voluntad del Padre celestial quien los alimenta con el Pan de la Vida, su hijo Jesús. Debemos seguir caminando como hermanos y hermanas que somos, unidos en la bondad, la compasión y el perdón. Dios nos ama siempre, incluso en nuestros momentos de mayor debilidad. Es nuestro deber hacer lo mismo; en primer lugar, con nosotros mismos y después con nuestros semejantes.

Little Rock Scripture Study, The Book of Job

You've heard about it.

Now dig into it.

Job is among the most intriguing books of the Bible, dealing with the trauma of evil befalling good people. Kathleen O'Connor, author of the book, Job, published by Liturgical Press, guides readers through Job with theological insight born of her faith and experience. Her book is available on Amazon or at Litpress.org.

We will study the Book of Job using this text as a starting point. The study will be on Zoom on Mondays from 10:00 to 11:30 am throughout the school year beginning on September 9. Please contact Mike Plett at mike.plett1@gmail.com to join and receive Zoom invitations.
