2. INFORMATION REPORTS

    A. Student/Staff Recognition – Ms. Linda Andreassi –

        1. The Seneca Valley Reading Team of "The Dumbledorks" won first place in the Butler County Reading Competition held Nov. 7 in the Seneca Valley Senior High School. Students were given a list of 16 books to read. On the day of the competition, there was a 96-question quiz show where teams competed to see who knew the books the best. The SV Reading Team is part of The Seneca Valley Library Club for grades 9-12. – BACKUP

        2. The Seneca Valley Academic Decathlon Team placed first among 15 schools, and brought home over 10 medals, in the Academic Decathlon Competition at Meadville High School on Nov. 9. The students competed in five events: art, music, literature, social science and essay. The next competition will be held at Collegiate Academy on Dec. 7. – BACKUP

        3. Seneca Valley Senior High School students in the Purpose program won Butler County Community College's Entrepreneurship Challenge on Nov. 6. The team beat out eight other area high schools to win $250, which they hope to use as start up cash for their business, Raider Crate. In summary, their plan is to create a subscription service that would deliver to classmates Raider Crates containing items that advertise school spirit and coupon packets to alert students of area businesses with proceeds supporting school charitable groups, including the Seneca Valley Foundation (SVF). – BACKUP

        4. Seneca Valley Senior High School students, led by junior class officers Luke D'Ambrosio and Max Van Wormer, spent a recent weekend morning helping to assemble 30,000 meals for other parts of the world. – Students will be in attendance.
