

Hello, my name is Aliyah Scales

I am your School Counselor

ABOUT ME

My name is Aliyah Scales. I am originally from the beautiful Sunshine State of Florida and am now a Texan! I am a wife to my amazing husband and a dog mom to my fur baby, Steel. My biggest passion is spending quality time with my family and friends. You will often find me taking walks with my dog, shopping at Target, and exploring the city. I am so excited to get to know every one of you.

How can I help?

- Provide education about students' social-emotional needs.
- Meet individually with students to do brief counseling
- Provide resources and collaborate with parents/guardians, teachers, support staff, and administration.
- Work with all students to encourage a safe school climate of trust and respect.
