9th Grade Advisors

What is advisory?

- During advisory, students will participate in discussions and activities to build student community, self-advocacy, character education, and wellbeing.
- Advisors serve as an advocate for your student(s) throughout their time at CDS.
- Advisors will check in with students throughout the school year to help them navigate challenges and celebrate their accomplishments!

School Counseling Services

1. Counselor's primary role is to support and advocate for your student(s)' social and emotional needs
2. Serves as a partner for students and guardians in the area of character development, emotional management, and self-advocacy.
3. Works to advocate for best practice:

"Let's partner in proactive ways to prevent operating from a reactive stance."

The graphic is a vertical red banner titled "Upper School Counseling Referral Forms". At the top left is the Carrollwood Day School logo. Below the title is a large graphic that says "SCHOOL COUNSELOR I'LL BE THERE FOR YOU". Underneath is a "DIRECTIONS:" section with three numbered steps: 1. Use your device to scan the QR code, 2. Complete the form to share information with the school counselor, and 3. Counselors will work with students, parents, and teachers to set up a time/place to meet. To the right of the directions are three QR codes, each with a "SCAN ME" label. The QR codes are labeled "STUDENTS", "PARENTS", and "TEACHERS/STAFF". At the bottom are three boxes: 1. SOCIAL (Let's talk about your feelings and emotions), 2. LIFE OUTSIDE OF SCHOOL (We are here for you!), and 3. MENTAL HEALTH (Self-care is important!).
