

District Parent & Family Engagement Policy

Balsz School District supports and encourages parent and family engagement and is committed to bringing quality programs to the children of the district.

Balsz School District offers the following for parents and families:

- Opportunity for planning, review, and improvement of the district's parent and family engagement policy, in an organized, ongoing and timely manner.
- Hold annual Title I meeting to inform parents of the district's participation in Title I programs and to explain the Title I requirements and the rights of parents to be involved in Title I programs.
- Provide information to parents and families, of all participating students, in an understandable and uniform format, including alternate formats upon request of parents with disabilities, and to the extent practicable, in a language that parents can understand.
- Provide to parents and families of all participating students information in a timely manner about Title I programs that include a method by which parents may learn about the course of study for their children and a review of learning materials, and the forms of academic assessment used to measure children's progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
- Provide opportunities for regular meetings for parents and families of all participating students to formulate suggestions (Title I Meetings and Coffee Talks), and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children, including attendance, homework, and discipline.
- Provide an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least Math, English Language Arts which includes writing and reading.
- Provide a timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not appropriately certified as per Title I Federal Regulation (34 CFR § 200.56).
- Maintain at the district office/school offices, resumes of all current and former instructional personnel available for inspection for parents or guardians of pupils enrolled.
