

Change full magnets into neighborhood schools

The magnet programs at Liberty, Linden and Dilworth are phased out

- The phase out of K-5 magnets would be part of an effort to create foundational K-5 programming, with world language offered in every K-5
- In the interim, these schools could become partial magnets, but stop enrolling magnet students from outside of their attendance zones