(A) Statewide Goals

In HB 1638, the State of Texas lists the following goals of dual credit education:

1. Independent school districts and institutions of higher education will implement purposeful and collaborative outreach efforts to inform all students and parents of the benefits and costs of dual credit, including enrollment and fee policies.
2. Dual credit programs will assist District students in the successful transition to and acceleration through postsecondary education.
3. All dual credit students will receive academic and college readiness advising with access to student support services to bridge them successfully into college course completion.
4. The quality and rigor of dual credit courses will be sufficient to ensure student success in subsequent courses.

In partnership with the District, Weatherford College offers the following means of meeting these goals:

1. The College partners with the District to present information to students and parents at annual dual credit informational nights hosted at the District. The College's website includes a dual credit page that outlines the steps to apply for, enroll in, and pay for dual credit classes. The College hosts two annual meetings for District administrators, one in the fall for superintendents, principals, and counselors; and one in the spring for counselors. The College markets its dual credit programs in cooperation with its secondary education partners. All such information is posted to the College's dual credit website.
2. Weatherford College manages data on student performance and persistence after leaving the WC dual credit program through organizationally generated records and through data collected from the National Student Clearinghouse. These data include post-secondary enrollments, student majors, persistence, time to degree completion, and graduation from participating colleges and universities.
3. Weatherford College provides academic advising to dual credit students, both in making dual credit course selections as well as in the transfer of dual credit coursework to postsecondary institutions after completion of secondary education.
4. Weatherford College maintains the same credentialing and curricular standards for dual credit faculty and courses that it does for non-dual credit faculty and courses, as outlined in detail below.

(B) FERPA

Federal regulations stipulate that college students must be regarded as adults, regardless of age, with respect to their student records. This standard compels Weatherford College to adhere to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) as the College handles issues of student records. See Addendum C for details about FERPA and the Weatherford College FERPA release forms.

(C) Student Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for enrollment in a dual credit course, a student who is enrolled in a public, private, or non-accredited secondary school or who is home-schooled must:

1. attain freshman year high school standing.
2. meet all of the College's regular prerequisite requirements designated for the course (e.g., minimum score placement test scores, minimum grade in a specified previous course, etc.).
3. exhibit and maintain the level of intellectual, personal, and social maturity associated with college-level coursework.
4. participate in adult/college-level class discussions that may include controversial issues or subject matter.
5. expect to invest at least as much time out of class as in class reading, studying, and completing assignments.

Further, to be eligible for enrollment in a dual credit course for which college readiness assessment is required, the student must present a passing score on a Board-approved college readiness assessment instrument in the area or areas deemed relevant by the College for the intended dual credit course in which the student shall enroll.

WC recommends demonstration of college-level reading proficiency for all transfer-intended college courses. WC requires demonstration of college-level reading and writing proficiency for the following courses: ENGL 1301, ENGL 1302, all 2000-level ENGL classes, HIST 1301, HIST 1302, all 2000-level HIST classes, GOVT 2305, GOVT 2306, PHIL 1301, and PHIL 2306. WC requires demonstration of college-level mathematics proficiency for the following courses: all MATH at the 1000 or higher level; BIOL 1406, BIOL 1407, CHEM 1411, PHYS 1401, ACCT 2301.

1. Appropriate scores on any of the following approved tests may be used, depending on grade level: PSAT, SAT/ACT, STAAR EOC, and TSI Assessment.
2. The testing standards are:
 - PSAT: a score of 460 on the evidence-based reading and writing (EBRW); a score of 510 on the mathematics.

- ACT: composite score of 23 with 19 on English AND Math.
- SAT: composite scores of 1070 (critical thinking + math) with 500 on critical reading AND Math.
- STAAR End of Course (EOC) for Dual Credit eligibility: score of 4000 on English II, a score of 4000 on Algebra I and a passing grade in the Algebra II course.
- TSIA2 Assessment standards: ELAR score of 945+ AND Essay score of 5 - 8 OR ELAR score under 945 AND ELAR Diagnostic Level of 5 - 6 AND Essay score of 5 - 8; Math score 950+ or Math score under 950 AND Math Diagnostic Level of 6

To be eligible for enrollment in a dual credit course included in a Technical Certificate Program ranging from 15 – 42 semester credit hours, the student must complete a Weatherford College application.

(D) Eligible Courses

According to Texas S.B. 1091, courses offered for dual credit must be (1) in the core curriculum of the public institution of higher education providing college credit; (2) a career and technical course; or (3) a foreign language course. Some academic transfer courses considered “technical” in nature may be offered for dual credit; these courses include those with the following rubrics: ACCT (accounting), AGRI (agriculture), ARCH (architecture), BCIS (business computer information systems), COSC (computer science), CRIJ (criminal justice), ENGR (engineering), ENGT (engineering technology), FORE (forestry), and HORT (horticulture). Dual credit courses are offered through partnership between the institutions identified.

Dual credit courses do not include courses attempted independently by students of the secondary education partner. Such students are classified as early admissions rather than dual credit. The student is responsible for communicating with the District regarding coursework completed by the individual student through early enrollment if that coursework is to be considered toward completion of secondary education graduation requirements.

Dual credit courses must meet comparable minimum and maximum enrollment standards as applied to the same course at all other campuses of the College. Weatherford College will notify the District in a timely manner if enrollment does not meet the minimum enrollment in order to allow time for alternative scheduling arrangements.

A Dual Credit course is a College course in all respects. The curriculum and teaching methods are the same as in other College courses. All dual-credit course instruction and materials must be identical to that used for the same courses taught at all other campuses of the College.

(E) Course Equivalency Crosswalk

Dual-credit-to-high-school-credit crosswalks are unique to each participating institution. The crosswalk is identified as Addendum B to this document.

(F) Attendance and Satisfactory Academic Progress

Dual credit students are expected to attend class and maintain satisfactory academic progress. Students are subject to the College's attendance policy, outlined below:

“Participation in College-sanctioned activity is considered an excused absence, provided that students complete the Excused Absence Form, have it signed by the activity advisor, and present it to all instructors prior to the impending absence. For students in dual-credit classes, high-school-and-/or UIL-sponsored absences will also be considered excused absences, provided that, prior to the impending absence, students provide instructors with signed documentation from the activity advisor.

In the case of work missed due to an excused absence, when it is feasible to submit work early, students will be permitted the opportunity to do so, provided that before the absence occurs they 1) supply their instructors with documentation of the absence and 2) make arrangements with their instructors to make up the work missed. If the nature of the missed work cannot be adequately reproduced outside of the class, instructors should note how the absence may be expected to impact the student's progress in a course. The activity advisor shall consider the instructor's comments while determining if the student should participate in the identified activity.”

Excessive and/or prolonged absences from class will negatively affect a student's grade. Likewise, failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress in formative assignments will impact summative course grades. Faculty will report students to the Secondary Education Institution for excessive absences and/or significant failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress. The College reserves the right to withdraw the student from a dual credit class due to excessive absences and/or failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress.

Students who miss more than one week of class due to secondary school suspension, assignment to alternative education and/or expulsion may be withdrawn from the College course. Student continuation in the course may be approved by mutual agreement between the College and the Secondary Education Partner.

(G) Location of Class

Dual credit courses may be provided on the College campus, the District campus, online, or in a hybridized format. For dual credit courses provided exclusively to secondary students on the District campus and for dual credit courses provided electronically, the College shall comply with applicable rules and procedures for offering courses at a distance. In addition, dual credit courses provided electronically shall comply with the THECB's adopted Principles of Good Practice for Courses Offered Electronically.

For dual-credit courses taught at the District, the District shall appoint a liaison officer who is responsible for facilities, supplies, support of faculty, and communications.

For dual-credit courses taught online, the District shall appoint a classroom facilitator whose responsibility is to support the teaching-learning process.

For dual credit courses taught at the District, the Secondary Education Institution shall provide an atmosphere which promotes a collegiate environment for classes. This includes adequate classroom facilities, limited disruptions for announcements, pep rallies, and other District related activities, and support in students' course attendance.

No dual credit student shall attain more than 29 semester credit hours of instruction as provided by Weatherford College through dual credit coursework provided at a single District campus unless a Substantive Change notice has been filed with and accepted by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC) to offer more than half of the associate degree curriculum at the District.

(H) Composition of Class

Dual credit courses provided online or at a College campus may be composed of dual credit students only or of dual and college credit students.

Dual credit courses provided on a high school campus may be composed of dual credit students only or of dual credit and non-dual-credit high school students.

(I) Faculty Selection, Supervision, and Evaluation

The College shall select instructors of dual credit courses. These instructors must be regularly employed as faculty members of the College. These instructors must meet the same standards (including minimal requirements of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools) and approval procedures used by the College to select faculty responsible for teaching the same courses at all other campuses of the College. The College shall supervise and evaluate instructors of dual credit courses using the same procedures used for faculty at all other campuses of the College.

High school faculty who teach dual credit academic transfer courses will be paid for services rendered under this agreement in accordance with the College's established rate and schedule for embedded faculty. Faculty who teach dual credit technical courses will be paid for services rendered under this agreement at the rate of $200 per semester credit hour. All classes for which a faculty member is compensated by Weatherford College must meet a minimum headcount of 12 at the time the 12th class day rosters are certified. Continuation of classes with headcounts below 12 at the time of the 12th class day must be approved by the College, the Secondary Education partner institution, and the faculty member. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing between all parties, a faculty member teaching a class with an enrollment of fewer than 12 students shall be compensated at a proportional rate with each enrolled student counting 1/12 toward the normal rate of compensation for the course.

(J) Course Curriculum, Instruction, and Grading

The College shall ensure that every dual credit course is equivalent with respect to the curriculum, materials, instruction, and method/rigor of student evaluation to the same course at all other campuses of the College. When applicable, College preparatory coursework is addressed in Addendum A of this document.

(K) Exam Proctoring

Exams for online or hybrid classes may be taken at the District provided they are proctored by a WC- approved proctor with a signed proctor agreement on file with the WC Dual Credit office. Exam proctors are expected to ensure test integrity and to report any academic integrity violations to the WC Dual Credit office. Online testing for WC Dual Credit courses may require the use of a remote proctoring service. WC Technology Services will assist District personnel with the process of acquisition and set-up of the technology where applicable.

(L) Academic Policies and Student Support Services

Academic policies applicable to courses provided at all other campuses of the College must apply to dual credit courses. These policies may include, but are not limited to, the appeals process for disputed grades, the drop policy, the communication of course syllabi and grading policy to students, etc.

Dual Credit students desiring to take more than 16 semester credit hours in a long (fall or spring) semester must have a recommendation from their high school counselor and written permission from the WC Executive Vice President of Academic Services. All requests for semester overloads must be made no later than the last business day before the first day of the semester for which the request is being made. No student will be permitted to enroll in more than 20 semester credit hours in any long semester.

Students in dual credit courses must be eligible to utilize the same or comparable support services that are afforded non-dual credit College students. The College is responsible for ensuring timely and efficient access to such services (e.g., academic advising and counseling), to learning materials (e.g., library resources), and to other benefits for which the student may be eligible. The following support services are available online or in person at a WC campus: WC library resources, writing support, tutoring, and ADA/504 accommodations. The following support services are available online, over the phone, or in person at a WC campus: payments and academic advising.

(M) Transcription of Credit

For dual credit courses, secondary as well as college credit should be transcribed immediately upon a student's completion of the course.

(N) Funding

1. The state funding for dual credit courses will be available to both public school districts and colleges based upon the current funding rules of the State Board of Education and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.
2. For Academic Year 2024-25, the College has opted to participate in the Financial Aid for Swift Transfer (FAST) system established under HB8. Students of public independent school districts are eligible to participate in the FAST program after qualifying for the Free and Reduced Lunch program as outlined by the USDA Food and Nutrition Service at any time during the previous four years, and when qualified may not pay any portion of tuition, fees, course materials or other charges. The District agrees to provide dual credit students' Texas Student Data System (TSDS) number to the College. The College shall upload dual credit rosters including the TSDS or other allowable ID to the state portal for eligibility to be verified by the Texas Education Agency (TEA) in conjunction with Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB). The College does not determine eligibility for student participation in FAST.

3. All dual credit classes shall be billed at the FAST maximum tuition rate set by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board. Dual credit students who are not eligible for FAST shall be assessed dual credit tuition, fees, and textbook charges as approved by the WC Board of Trustees. 4. For dual credit students who do not qualify for FAST but may qualify for financial aid, the College may provide need-based scholarship awards. Each student who wants to be considered for the Dual Enrollment Grant (DEG) will fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or, if ineligible to complete the FAFSA, the Texas Application for Student Financial Aid (TASFA). Eligible students may be awarded up to 6 hours of FAST tuition and fees each fall and spring semester. The scholarship awards cover tuition and fee costs only. Eligibility is based on the Student Aid Index (SAI) as determined through the FAFSA or TASFA. All award decisions are made by the Weatherford College Financial Aid office. Funds may be limited, and priority is given to applications made by mid-June prior to that fall's enrollment.
5. Any costs for textbooks and supplies shall be paid by the District or by the student, but may not be paid by a FAST-eligible student. Textbooks and supplies for FAST-eligible students shall be paid by the District or its philanthropic designee.

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act affords students certain rights with the respect to their education records. These rights are listed below.

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the College receives a request for access. Students should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The College official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the College official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.
2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes is inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the College to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the College official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the College decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the College will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his/her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.
3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests.
