miriam
YOUNG PROFESSIONALS

Network with young professionals who share your passion for bettering the lives of local children.

Develop your personal & professional leadership skills.

Collaborate & receive mentoring from Miriam Board Members & Community Partners

Help create equitable education opportunities for unique learners in St. Louis.

Miriam Young Professionals is a group of emerging leaders (ages 21-39) dedicated to creating awareness of Miriam School and Learning Center in St. Louis. This dynamic group promotes Miriam's mission by organizing fundraising events, networking opportunities, and volunteering activities. Members benefit from mentorship, and engage in professional development and personal growth through speaker sessions and workshops.
