About the class....

The AP English Language and Composition course aligns to an introductory college-level rhetoric and writing curriculum, which requires students to develop evidence-based analytic and argumentative essays that proceed through several stages or drafts. Students evaluate, synthesize, and cite research to support their arguments. Throughout the course, students develop a personal style by making appropriate grammatical choices. Additionally, students read and analyze the rhetorical elements and their effects in non-fiction texts, including graphic images as forms of text, from many disciplines and historical periods.

WHAT MAKES THIS COURSE INTERESTING?

- Explore literary works from several different genres and periods.
- Learn to read critically as you
 - ◇ Experience great literary works
 - ◇ Interpret those texts
 - ◇ Evaluate their quality and artistic achievement
