

It is suggested for students to complete reading over the summer. There is no official list nor assignment, but the following serve as suggestions from teachers:

AP Lang

As students progress from Honors English into AP English, they'll benefit from reading books that are considered to be "AP novels" because they've been cited on the AP Literature exam. These novels are usually more complex and may be written for an adult audience. A list of AP novels can be found here: AP Lit Reading List (This list would be beneficial to high school students at all grade levels.)

AP Lit

The Kite Runner (Khaled Hosseini)

A Thousand Splendid Suns (Khaled Hosseini)

Invisible Man (Ralph Ellison)
