

TROJANS SUPPORTING EACH OTHER

Guide to WALSINGHAM ACADEMY COMMUNITY BUSINESS DIRECTORY

2024

Welcome, Trojans!

Now more than ever is the time to support our local businesses. We want you to know that your business is part of our community. Whether you are an alum, current or alum parent, grandparent, or a community partner, we would love to showcase your business to the entire Walsingham Academy community.

Please know that this is a live directory and is updated regularly as more businesses opt in. Check back every few weeks to see if any new businesses have joined. We are excited for this to grow and to see Trojans supporting fellow Trojans!

The following businesses have opted in and provided the information that you will find in this directory.

Have questions or to sign up? Contact Kaitlin Sorrentino at alumni@walsingham.org.

Information provided in the online directory on this website is intended to provide a guide to businesses, organizations, and resources that support Walsingham Academy. Walsingham Academy or any of its employees neither endorse, warrant, nor guarantee the products or services advertised in the directory. The information provided in each listing on this website is published as obtained from external sources that provide the information.

Lynne's comprehensive approach includes a thorough financial planning process and investment implementation creatively addressing a client's unique situation. After developing a financial plan with her client's specific needs and goals in mind, an investment strategy is implemented that supports that plan. Regular interaction and performance reporting follows, so that her clients know exactly where they stand at any point in time. Throughout this process Lynne is committed to providing an exceptional client experience. Lynne's favorite part of financial services is truly connecting with her clients, learning their interesting stories and standing alongside them as they develop full knowledge of their finances. This knowledge - coupled with an effective investment strategy - creates a strong foundation, allowing a client to confidently flourish in the activities and commitments they care most about.
