Your name will be placed on the public comment section of the agenda and will be limited to 5 minutes. The number of public comments may be limited depending on the time available. Please use the table provided when addressing the Board. Issues will not be debated nor does giving a public comment necessarily mean the Board will consider or take action on the item at this time. Your public comment is a vehicle to communicate with the Board as a whole on relevant issues to the school district.

Personnel issues cannot be dealt with in this forum due to data privacy regulations. If you have an issue or issues relating to a staff member, please contact that individual's building principal, supervisor or the Superintendent of Schools.

Thank you for your cooperation.
