WISDOM

FINDING OUT WHAT YOU SHOULD DO AND DOING IT

Wisdom AUGUST 2024

SAY IT:

Wisdom: Finding out what you should do and doing it

KNOW IT:

ASK A GROWN-UP:

- When you were growing up, who did you go to for advice and wisdom?
- Can you remember any bits of wisdom from your childhood that you still use as an adult?

ASK A KID:

- Who do you consider to be a good source of wisdom?
- If a younger friend or sibling came to you for advice, what wisdom would you share?

SEE IT:

The storybook character Winnie the Pooh often went to his friend Owl to seek advice. Sometimes, this got a little bit confusing for the well-meaning Pooh bear. On one occasion, Winnie the Pooh and Eeyore were seeking Owl's wisdom, but couldn't quite understand Owl's advice. When Owl recommended they "issue a reward" they thought Owl had sneezed on the word "issue." This led to a small bit of frustration and more confusion as Owl explained that he had said "issue" not "achoo." Take a minute and watch this video clip on YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZkCMqhPULdc>. For many of us, seeking wisdom can be confusing, just like it was for Winnie the Pooh. Sometimes we have to really listen and understand the advice someone is giving us. Many of us can remember things that we heard from our parents, teachers, coaches, and other leaders that seemed confusing when we first heard them, but have proven to be very wise bits of advice over time.

BE IT:

As a family, create a "wisdom board." You could use a bulletin board, poster board, or a journal notebook. Ask some people for wise bits of advice or research wise sayings on the internet. Write them on your wisdom board and put it where you can see it every day. Discuss these bits of wisdom and look for ways you can use this wisdom to "Make Smart Decisions."

PHASE Wisdom AUGUST 2024

What is a Phase?

We've all said it: "It's just a phase." Meaning that your child will get through whatever irritating moment in time he or she happens to be in right now.

But what if we flip that? What if instead of eagerly awaiting the moment when your child will grow out of it, we embraced each Phase as a moment of time that we will never have again?

What if a Phase became: A time frame in a kid's life when you can leverage that moment to influence their future?

If you're a planner, you may be concentrating on the future – a phase your child will be in sometime in the future.

If you are nostalgic, you may be focused on what your child used to be like.

But instead, let's focus on how we can use this year, these next 10 months, to influence our kids for the best possible outcome.

So don't miss it. It's just a phase!
