Ochoa Middle School Rights and Responsibilities

Overview of Student Rights

Each student attending Ochoa Middle School has the right to:

- An equal educational opportunity, free of discrimination because of national origin, immigration status, race, religion, sexual orientation, gender, pregnancy, marital status, or an identified learning need.
- Be secure in his or her person, papers, and effects from unreasonable search and seizures.
- Free expression and assembly subject to reasonable limitations and identified procedures for exercising such rights.
- Be free from unlawful interference in his or her pursuit of an education while in the custody of a school authority.

Student Conduct

At Ochoa Middle School, students are safe, respectful, and responsible. We are committed to promoting a positive learning environment and will work in partnership with parents/guardians to help all students achieve at high levels.

Student Discipline Procedures

Disciplinary action will be taken when students choose behavior that is a substantial disruption to the educational environment. Discipline may include temporary removal from a class, activity, school function, or detention. Parent, student, teacher, and administrator conferences may also be required. As a result, a student may be placed on a behavior contract to ensure the student's renewed focus on learning.

Other forms of discipline may include the following:

- Teaching or re-teaching behavioral expectations
- Oral or written feedback
- Parent notification or conferences
- Increased supervision
- Loss of privileges
- Lunch or after school detention
- Behavior monitoring or behavioral contract
- Restorative justice practices
- Counseling or behavioral health services
- Community service or restitution
- Student support services

Classroom exclusions: A teacher can remove a student from class for behaviors that disrupt the learning process. Before exclusion, the teacher will attempt to help the student meet behavioral expectations. Our school is dedicated to using positive approaches to behavior, and classroom exclusions will only be used as a last resort.

Possible consequences of discipline referrals to administrator include, but are not limited to, after school detention, classroom exclusion, short-term suspension, long-term suspension, emergency removal, expulsion. Any students who are placed on any form of suspension or expulsion are not permitted to participate in or attend school-sponsored activities, including all academic and sporting events during disciplinary action. This includes being on any Pasco School District property.

Student Re-engagement Procedures

A condition for re-engagement for a student who has been placed on any form of suspension or expulsion would be reinstated back to school with a parent and student meeting with an administrator. A student success plan may be discussed based on the disciplinary violation and areas of concern. Parents, student, and administrator may be requested to sign a contract and all parties will receive a copy to keep for their records.

Check-In/Check-Out Process

Some students will be placed on a Check-In/Check-Out (CICO) process to help them be successful throughout the day. The CICO is set up to provide specific feedback at several times throughout the day on how the student is doing meeting the school expectations. It provides a format for students to set and meet goals.

Ochoa Middle School Policies and Procedures

Ochoa Middle School's focus is on student learning and on eliminating disruptions to that learning environment.

Attendance at Ochoa Middle School is mandatory and of special concern to all members of the Pasco School District and our community. All students who are enrolled from grades 6-8 are required to attend regularly. It is the responsibility of the parent(s) or guardian(s) to cause the student to attend. It is the responsibility of the student to attend for the full time when school is in session.

- Inform the student's parent(s) or guardian(s) by a notice in writing or by telephone whenever the student has failed to attend school after one unexcused absence. The school is not responsible for contacting parents/guardians when phone numbers have been changed or disconnected without notice to the school or if false information has been given.
- School officials shall inform the parent or guardian of the potential consequences of additional unexcused absences.
- School officials shall schedule a convenient conference or conferences with the parent(s) or guardian(s) for the purpose of analyzing the causes of the child's absences after five unexcused absences.

Unexcused Absences:

After the first unexcused absence, parent(s) or guardian(s) shall be notified by the attendance office. After five unexcused absences within any month, a conference shall be held with the parent(s) and guardian(s), the student, the student's counselor, the classroom teacher(s), and a member of the administrative team. At the conference, the group shall consider:

- Counselor meetings, attendance plan, and/or an attendance contract;
- Parent(s) or guardian(s) attendance at school with the student;
- Adjustment of the student's program, school, or course assignment;
- Referral to a Student Achievement Specialist;
- Re-evaluation of individualized instruction; and/or
- Referral of the family to supplemental community services to help alleviate the problem.

After ten (10) unexcused absences during the academic school year, the school district will petition the juvenile court to assume jurisdiction.

Tardies:

Students are responsible to arrive to class on time and ready to participate/contribute to the learning environment. If a student arrives more than 10 minutes late to class, it may be considered an absence, and a referral may be written for Inappropriate Location/Skipping.

Our Schools Protect Students from Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying (HIB)

Schools are meant to be safe and inclusive environments where all students are protected from Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying (HIB), including in the classroom, on the school bus, in school sports, and during other school activities. This section defines HIB, explains what to do when you see or experience it, and our school's process for responding to it.

What is HIB?

HIB is any intentional electronic, written, verbal, or physical act of a student that:

- Physically harms another student or damages their property;
- Has the effect of greatly interfering with another student's education; or,
- Is so severe, persistent, or significant that it creates an intimidating or threatening education environment for other students.

HIB generally involves an observed or perceived power imbalance and is repeated multiple times or is highly likely to be repeated. HIB is not allowed, by law, in our schools.

How can I make a report or complaint about HIB?

Talk to any school staff member (consider starting with whoever you are most comfortable with!). You may use our district's reporting form to share concerns about HIB by clicking here but reports about HIB can be made in writing or verbally. Your report can be made anonymously, if you are uncomfortable revealing your identity, or confidentially if you prefer it not be shared with other students involved with the report. No disciplinary action will be taken against another student based solely on an anonymous or confidential report.

If a staff member is notified of, observes, overhears, or otherwise witnesses HIB, they must take prompt and appropriate action to stop the HIB behavior and to prevent it from happening again. Our district also has a HIB Compliance Officer, Dr. Alice Amaya (call 509-543-6700 or email aamaya@psd1.org), that supports prevention and response to HIB.

What happens after I make a report about HIB?

If you report HIB, school staff must attempt to resolve the concerns. If the concerns are resolved, then no further action may be necessary. However, if you feel that you or someone you know is the victim of unresolved, severe, or persistent HIB that requires further investigation and action, then you should request an official HIB investigation.

Also, the school must take actions to ensure that those who report HIB don't experience retaliation.

What is the investigation process?

When you report a complaint, the HIB Compliance Officer or staff member leading the investigation must notify the families of the students involved with the complaint and must make sure a prompt and thorough investigation takes place. The investigation must be completed within 5 school days, unless you agree on a different timeline. If your complaint involves circumstances that require a longer investigation, the district will notify you with the anticipated date for their response.

Revised 8.1.24

When the investigation is complete, the HIB Compliance Officer or the staff member leading the investigation must provide you with the outcomes of the investigation within 2 school days. This response should include:

- A summary of the results of the investigation
- A determination of whether the HIB is substantiated
- Any corrective measures or remedies needed
- Clear information about how you can appeal the decision

What are the next steps if I disagree with the outcome?

For the student designated as the “targeted student” in a complaint:

If you do not agree with the school district’s decision, you may appeal the decision and include any additional information regarding the complaint to the superintendent, or the person assigned to lead the appeal, and then to the school board.

For the student designated as the “aggressor” in a complaint:

A student found to be an “aggressor” in a HIB complaint may not appeal the decision of a HIB investigation. They can, however, appeal corrective actions that result from the findings of the HIB investigation.

For more information about the HIB complaint process, including important timelines, please see the district’s HIB web page or the district’s HIB Policy 3207 and Procedure 3207P.

Our School Stands Against Discrimination

Discrimination can happen when someone is treated differently or unfairly because they are part of a protected class, including their race, color, national origin, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, religion, creed, disability, use of a service animal, or veteran or military status.

What is discriminatory harassment?

Discriminatory harassment can include teasing and name-calling; graphic and written statements; or other conduct that may be physically threatening, harmful, or humiliating. Discriminatory harassment happens when the conduct is based on a student’s protected class and is serious enough to create a hostile environment. A hostile environment is created when conduct is so severe, pervasive, or persistent that it limits a student’s ability to participate in, or benefit from, the school’s services, activities, or opportunities.

To review the district’s Nondiscrimination Policy 3210 and Procedure 3210P, visit www.psd1.org.

What is sexual harassment?

Sexual harassment is any unwelcome conduct or communication that is sexual in nature and substantially interferes with a student’s educational performance or creates an intimidating or hostile environment. Sexual harassment can also occur when a student is led to believe they must submit to unwelcome sexual conduct or communication to gain something in return, such as a grade or a place on a sports team.

Examples of sexual harassment can include pressuring a person for sexual actions or favors; unwelcome touching of a sexual nature; graphic or written statements of a sexual nature; distributing sexually explicit texts, e-mails, or pictures; making sexual jokes, rumors, or suggestive remarks; and physical violence, including rape and sexual assault.

Our schools do not discriminate based on sex and prohibit sex discrimination in all of our education programs and employment, as required by Title IX and state law.

To review the district’s Sexual Harassment Policy 3208 and Procedure 3208P, visit www.psd1.org.

What should my school do about discriminatory and sexual harassment?

When a school becomes aware of possible discriminatory or sexual harassment, it must investigate and stop the harassment. The school must address any effects the harassment had on the student at school, including eliminating the hostile environment, and make sure that the harassment does not happen again.

What can I do if I’m concerned about discrimination or harassment?

Talk to a Coordinator or submit a written complaint. You may contact the following school district staff members to report your concerns, ask questions, or learn more about how to resolve your concerns.

Concerns about discrimination:

Civil Rights Coordinator: Sarah Thornton, Assistant Superintendent of Legal Services
1215 W. Lewis St, Pasco, WA 99301
509-543-6700 sthornton@psd1.org

Title IX Coordinator: Sarah Thornton, Assistant Superintendent of Legal Services
1215 W. Lewis St, Pasco, WA 99301

Concerns about disability discrimination:

Section 504 Coordinator: Kristi Docken, Director of Special Services
1215 W. Lewis St, Pasco, WA 99301
509-543-6700 kdocken@psd1.org

Concerns about discrimination based on gender identity:

Gender-Inclusive Schools Coordinator:
Sarah Thornton, Assistant Superintendent of Legal Services

To submit a written complaint, describe the conduct or incident that may be discriminatory and send it by mail, fax, email, or hand delivery to the school principal, district superintendent, or civil rights coordinator. Submit the complaint as soon as possible for a prompt investigation, and within one year of the conduct or incident.

What happens after I file a discrimination complaint?

The Civil Rights Coordinator will give you a copy of the school district's discrimination complaint procedure. The Civil Rights Coordinator must make sure a prompt and thorough investigation takes place. The investigation must be completed within 30 calendar days unless you agree to a different timeline. If your complaint involves exceptional circumstances that require a longer investigation, the Civil Rights Coordinator will notify you in writing with the anticipated date for their response.

When the investigation is complete, the school district superintendent or the staff member leading the investigation will send you a written response. This response will include:

- A summary of the results of the investigation
- A determination of whether the school district failed to comply with civil rights laws
- Any corrective measures or remedies needed
- Notice about how you can appeal the decision

What are the next steps if I disagree with the outcome?

If you do not agree with the outcome of your complaint, you may appeal the decision to Board of Directors and then to the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI). More information about this process, including important timelines, is included in the district's Nondiscrimination Procedure 3210P and Sexual Harassment Procedure 3208P.

I already submitted an HIB complaint – what will my school do?

Harassment, intimidation, or bullying (HIB) can also be discrimination if it's related to a protected class. If you give your school a written report of HIB that involves discrimination or sexual harassment, your school will notify the Civil Rights Coordinator. The school district will investigate the complaint using both the Nondiscrimination Procedure 3210P and the HIB Procedure 3207P to fully resolve your complaint.

Who else can help with HIB or Discrimination Concerns?

Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI)

Our School is Gender-Inclusive

In Washington, all students have the right to be treated consistent with their gender identity at school. Our school will:

- Address students by their requested name and pronouns, with or without a legal name change
- Change a student’s gender designation and have their gender accurately reflected in school records
- Allow students to use restrooms and locker rooms that align with their gender identity
- Allow students to participate in sports, physical education courses, field trips, and overnight trips in accordance with their gender identity
- Keep health and education information confidential and private
- Allow students to wear clothing that reflects their gender identity and apply dress codes without regard to a student’s gender or perceived gender
- Protect students from teasing, bullying, or harassment based on their gender or gender identity
