Position: Events & Philanthropy Intern

Location: Shir Ami, Newtown, PA

Schedule: Sundays (9-11:30am), Tuesdays (4:45-6:15pm), Wednesdays (5:30-7:30pm)
Additional hours available on Saturday mornings for the right candidate.

Duration: September 2024 - May 2025

About the Role: Shir Ami, a thriving reform temple in Newtown, PA, is seeking a Resource Teacher to join our Religious School for the upcoming school year. The ideal candidate will have strong Hebrew and Judaic Studies skills, a warm and patient demeanor, and the ability to connect personally with students of all ages. Experience working with students with special needs, including dyslexia, ADHD, and autism, is a plus. This role involves providing both pull-out and push-in support.

Responsibilities:

- Engage and support students through individualized instruction and group activities.
- Implement and adapt teaching strategies to meet the needs of students with various learning styles and abilities.
- Foster a positive and inclusive classroom environment.
- Collaborate with other educators to ensure effective support and integration.

Ideal Candidate:

- Strong skills in Hebrew and Judaic Studies.
- Experience or familiarity with special education needs is desirable.
- Patient, empathetic, and able to build strong relationships with students.

To Apply: Interested candidates should contact Rabbi Eric Goldberg at egoldberg@shiramipa.org.
