School delays, early dismissals, and cancellations are communicated via the district's messaging system and are also posted on the district's website: www.fortmillschools.org. SC State Law H.3890 requires that 3 statutory make-up days must be used before a school board is granted the right to waive up to 3 remaining make-up days. Therefore the calendar, including the first and last day of school, is subject to change in the event of severe weather, changes to the current legislation or other unforeseen circumstances.

CANCELLATIONS OR DELAYS

The following resources are provided in the event school is cancelled or delayed due to inclement weather or other unforseen issue.

- · Cancellations and delays are posted on the district's home page (www.fortmillschools.org).
- Cancellations and delays are communicated through the district messaging system via phone, email, app, and/or a text message. Should a call, an email, and/or a text message not be received, please contact your child's school to update your contact information.
- Cancellations and delays are communicated to local news services.

In the event of a cancellation or delay, a decision will made by the administration by 6:00 am. School breakfasts are not served when school is delayed. Adjustments to planned lunch menus may also be made due to opening delays. When hazardous weather conditions develop during the school day, a decision to close school early will be communicated directly to parents and to media outlets. Elementary school students using bus transportation are served first, with middle school and high school bus students dismissed approximately 1 hour later. On-site after-school care at each elementary school will be canceled in cases when school is closed for the day, or when school is closed early.

MAKE-UP DAYS

Make-up days are pre-determined and are marked with the (* symbol on the school calendar. The district is also approved to use eLearning days to make up time lost to inclement weather. In the event of extraordinary weather conditions or other unforeseen circumstances, the calendar is subject to change.

PARENT PORTAL

Attendance and lunch balances for all grades may be accessed via the "Parent Portal" using the following address/hyperlink: https://fortmill.powerschool.com/public. Parent Portal account set-up information is provided by your child's school; please contact them directly for this information.
