Welcome to Lee Street Elementary School!!! Where we are committed to “Building A Better Tomorrow, Today!” My name is Kedajah Forte and I am the Parent Liaison. My goal is to strengthen the partnership between you and your child’s school to achieve academic success. We believe that parent engagement is the key to success. However, the school and the parents must work together to accomplish this goal. I am happy to be your connection between school and home. I am very excited to have this opportunity to work with you and your family this school year.

My primary focus is to become the foundation that bridges the gaps between the school, parents, and community by increasing parental engagement.. As your Liaison, I intend to promote equal power with parents as decision-makers and help parents understand the educational system. Therefore, parents will become better advocates for their children’s education.

As stated before, parent engagement is the key to success. This year we will be coordinating weekly meetings and workshops virtually and in person. We welcome all families to participate. Please do not hesitate to provide your feedback on additional topics you may be interested in as well throughout the school year. The Parent/Family Engagement workshops, meetings, and monthly calendars will be on the virtual parent resource center website and ClassDojo. Also, we have our “Parent Resource Center” where there are tons of resources for you and your family. In our Parent Resource Center, we have computers available for parents to use. The computers provide access to Infinite Campus to check grades, as well as additional resources online. If you need materials from our Parent Resource Center, please email me to set up an appointment.

Parent University & Resource Center: Monday- Friday 8:00am-2:30pm (Appointment Only)

I can be reached Monday-Friday via email at kedajah.forte@clayton.k12.ga.us or by phone 770-473-2815

Thank you, and I look forward to working with you!
