JESUS IS REJECTED

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him.

Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.

He was amazed at their lack of faith.

MARK 6:1-6

On the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, the significance of Jesus being rejected in his hometown emphasizes the complexities of faith and recognition of his divinity, while also serving as a foreshadowing of the challenges Jesus would face throughout his ministry. It prompts reflection on our own openness to receive Jesus and his teachings without letting familiarity or biases hinder our faith.

Reflections From Our Pastor

July 7th, 2024

Dear Friends,

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to each of you who took the time to reach out to me with kind words of appreciation, to those who joined us at the 10-year anniversary celebration, and to everyone who contributed to the generous gift. Your expressions of love have deeply touched me, and I am humbled by your unconditional support of my ministry over the past decade.

Our accomplishments at St. Agnes are a testament to your dedication to our parish and community. Without your stewardship, none of this would have been possible. From the bottom of my heart, thank you for making me a part of the St. Agnes family. It is a true honor to serve alongside you and to call you my brothers and sisters as we continue to walk together in our journey of faith.

Together We Are St. Agnes!

With love,

Pages To Heaven

BOOK CLUB

A spiritual reading club for anyone who wants to deepen their understanding of their Christian faith through literary classics. Spiritual reading is a cornerstone of Catholic practice, as it inspires our hearts and conforms our minds to Christ.

This month, we will discuss the book: Uniformity With God's Will by St. Alphonsus de Liguori. Saint Alphonsus writes to encourage believers to unify their wills with that of God's, so that they may love God perfectly. He explains how anyone can achieve uniformity with God and why it leads to authentic happiness.
