VOCATION TO HOLINESS AND APOSTOLATE

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading (Am 7:12–15) “I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The Lord took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel.”

2nd Reading (Ephesians 3:1-10) “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved.”

Gospel (Mk 6:7) “called to him the twelve, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits.”

The 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time teaches us that our vocation to holiness and apostolate is rooted in our relationship with Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, and fulfilled through active participation in the mission of the Church. It reminds us to call us to embrace our calling as disciples of Jesus, spreading the Gospel, and being witnesses of God’s love and mercy in the world.

Let us gather as a community to celebrate the blessings that surround us.

✝ TOGETHER IN FAITH

Reflections From Our Pastor

July 14th, 2024

Dear Friends,

This week I want to thank God especially for our Parish and Academy staff for the boundless dedication and hard work that each of them bring to our parish and academy. They are all completely devoted to serving not only out of love for God, but also out of a deep vocation to serving our parishioners, our students, and their families to make their experience at St. Agnes the best it can be.

Our staff's professionalism and commitment help us foster an environment where everyone feels welcome to seek God's grace and where evangelization thrives.

At the end of each day, when we close our doors and they leave their workstations, they do so with a profound sense of love and service for a purpose greater than themselves.

Despite our diverse backgrounds and cultures, there exists a unity and fraternity among us. This unity strengthens our mission and enhances the community we serve.

Let us continue to work together, guided by our faith and love for God, knowing that our efforts make a real difference in our St. Agnes community.

With love,

BOOK CLUB

A spiritual reading club for anyone who wants to deepen their understanding of their Christian faith through literary classics. Spiritual reading is a cornerstone of Catholic practice, as it inspires our hearts and conforms our minds to Christ.

This month, we will discuss the book: Uniformity With God's Will by St. Alphonsus de Liguori. Saint Alphonsus writes to encourage believers to unify their wills with that of God's, so that they may love God perfectly. He explains how anyone can achieve uniformity with God and why it leads to authentic happiness.
