World Day of Grandparents: Vatican grants Plenary Indulgence

The Vatican has granted a plenary indulgence to anyone who visits a sick, lonely, or disabled elderly person on the fourth annual World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly on July 28.

Those who are grandparents or elderly themselves can also receive a plenary indulgence, as well as anyone who participates in religious functions connected to the celebration, as long as the usual conditions are fulfilled.

The usual conditions to obtain a plenary indulgence are to be detached from all sin, to receive sacramental confession and holy Communion, and to pray for the pope's intentions.

A person who cannot leave his or her home due to sickness, infirmity, or another serious reason can also obtain the plenary indulgence if they "unite themselves spiritually to the sacred functions" of the day, "offering to the merciful God the prayers, pains, or sufferings of their lives, especially during the various celebrations which will be broadcast through the media.

Reflections From Our Pastor

July 28th, 2024

Dear Friends,

I'm very grateful to have participated in the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. It was absolutely spectacular! The last one had taken place 83 years ago. Approximately 60 thousand people attended the Eucharistic Revival plus many more who viewed it live. It was a very moving experience to see the church on fire with such vibrancy, joy, faith and unity. If you missed it, I encourage you to visit the numerous resources available at www.eucharisticrevival.org. The next Eucharistic Congress will be in 2033 in celebration of the two thousand year anniversary of Jesus' death. I am looking forward to sharing this encounter with many of you.

Blessings,

Rev. Juan C. Paguaga

Pastor

The Fire Is SPREADING

Thank you!

The staff of St. Agnes would like to thank everyone who participated in Fr JC's SURPRISE RETIREMENT GIFT in thanksgiving for his 10 years of service to St. Agnes.

Fr JC was greatly surprised, deeply touched, and profoundly thankful by the outpouring of appreciation from our parish family.

BOOK CLUB

A spiritual reading club for anyone who wants to deepen their understanding of their Christian faith through literary classics. Spiritual reading is a cornerstone of Catholic practice, as it inspires our hearts and conforms our minds to Christ.

This month, we will discuss the book: Uniformity With God's Will by St. Alphonsus de Liguori. Saint Alphonsus writes to encourage believers to unify their wills with that of God's, so that they may love God perfectly. He explains how anyone can achieve uniformity with God and why it leads to authentic happiness.
