

Autrey Mill Middle School Tardy Expectations

Tardiness to School

It is the responsibility of the parents and the student for the student to arrive on time. Excused tardies include illness, medical appointments, and other legal excuses mentioned above. Parents are asked to send a note or email when the student is tardy. All students who are tardy must report to the office before reporting to class. Chronic tardiness to school or to class may result in disciplinary consequences.

Tardiness to Class

Students are expected to be on time to all classes. If late, a pass from staff or faculty should accompany the student. If a student is late to class without a pass, their will be discipline actions as follows:

Tardies 1-4	Verbal Warning
5 th Tardy	Lunch Detention
10 th Tardy	After School Detention Completion of a Behavior Reflection Protocol
15 th Tardy	After School Detention Loss Of Recess Meeting with PBIS Coach to create plan to reduce tardies

Tardies will be counted for the entirety of a 9-weeks. At the start of a new 9-week period, tardies and discipline actions will reset.
