

RECITATION SCHEDULE 2024-2025

Students will be required to recite the poems or multiplication facts on the date listed. Recitations may take place throughout that week.

Poetry: Usually, the poetry recitations are at the front of the room. The students are graded mainly on the accuracy of the text but also on speaking voice volume, pace, expression, and stage presence.

Please print at home for your child. We will have some in-class practice, but it is very important that your child practice at home as well.

Multiplication Facts: Students need to have the assigned multiplication facts memorized by the date listed. Students will be tested with randomly ordered flash cards. They should be able to give the correct answer immediately upon seeing the problem.

For Want of a Nail

Author Unknown

For want of a nail the shoe was lost. For want of a shoe the horse was lost. For want of a horse the rider was lost. For want of a rider the battle was lost.

For want of a battle the kingdom was lost. And all for the want of a horseshoe nail.

Hiawatha's Childhood

from The song of Hiawatha by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

By the shores of Gitche Gumee,
By the shining Big-Sea-Water,
Stood the wigwam of Nokomis,
Daughter of the moon, Nokomis.
Dark behind it rose the forest,
Rose the black and gloomy pine-trees,
Rose the firs with cones upon them;
Bright before it beat the water,
Beat the clear and sunny water,
Beat the shining Big-Sea-Water.
There the wrinkled old Nokomis
Nursed the little Hiawatha,
Rocked him in his linden cradle,
Bedded soft in moss and rushes,

Trees

by Joyce Kilmer

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is pressed
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day, And lifts
her leafy arms to pray;
A tree that may in summer wear A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain; Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

The Bee

by Isaac Watts

How doth the little busy bee
Improve each shining hour,
And gather honey all the day
From every opening flower!

How skillfully she builds her cell!
How neat she spreads the wax!
And labors hard to store it well
With the sweet food she makes.

In works of labor or of skill,
I would be busy too;
For Satan finds some mischief still
For idle hands to do.

In books, or work, or healthful play,
Let my first years be passed,
That I may give for every day
Some good account at last.

Quote by William Penn

"I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

- William Penn (1644-1718) British religious leader
