

Practicum of Architectural Design - Workforce

Scope and Sequence

Course Description:

This class is Similar to Architectural Design II, except students must also have a Student Work Portfolio submitted and approved by Lone Star College. This is the required prerequisite for Project-Based Research in Architecture Workforce. The workforce courses include additional content aligned with the Lone Star College Architectural Design Technology AAS degree.

- Grades 11 - 12
- Required prerequisite: Architectural Design II
- Lab supplies or fee is required.
- NOTE: Workforce dual credit courses are non-transferable to a 4-year institution and don't carry advanced grade points

TEKS

Cluster: Architecture & Construction

Programs of Study: Architecture Drafting and Design

Endorsement: Business & Industry

- Meets advanced course requirement (Y/N): Yes
- Meets foundation requirement for math, science, fine arts, English, LOTE (Y/N-area): No

Industry Certification/Credentials: None

Instructional Units	Pacing
Professionalism and safety in the workplace Career Preparation Design and Sketching Commercial Architecture Research Commercial Architecture Design Project Commercial Architecture Building Codes Modeling	1st Semester
Residential Architecture Building Codes Project Proposal Presentation Capstone Project Portfolio Completion	2nd Semester

Primary Instructional Materials: CAD software, LSCS Content