New Principals Named For Central Davie Academy And Mocksville Elementary School

Mocksville, N.C., June 24, 2024 - Davie County Schools announced that Mary Foster is the new principal for Central Davie Academy, and Michael Osborne has been named principal of Mocksville Elementary School.

Foster recently served as principal at Mocksville Elementary since 2020 and has been in Davie County Schools since 2009 when she joined as assistant principal at Shady Grove. From there she served as assistant principal at William Ellis Middle before being named principal at North Davie Middle. She spent time in the classroom for almost nine years.

Foster earned a Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education with a Concentration in Science from Wake Forest University, a Master's of School Administration from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and was selected as a Principal Fellow Intern in 2008. Foster has been named District Principal of the Year twice and Assistant Principal of the year once.

Having served as assistant principal at Mocksville Elementary for the past four years, Michael Osborne now leads the school as principal. A native of Ashe County, Osborne attended Appalachian State University as a North Carolina Teaching Fellow and earned a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education/History. He later completed his Master's of School Administration from Appalachian, as well.

Mr. Osborne's career has spanned nearly 20 years in public schools with experience in elementary, middle and high schools, as well as various leadership experiences at the building and district levels.
