

ASYNCHRONOUS SCHOOL DAYS

FCS Innovation Academy

Types of Asynchronous School Days

Flex Friday Asynchronous Days	IA Professional Development Fridays
Students who are not a part of the required pathway will be asynchronous at home.	All students at IA are asynchronous at home.
This is considered a school day and dedicated work time is needed.	This is considered a school day and dedicated work time is needed.
Work will be posted by teachers on Thursday at 4:15pm on Canvas. Teachers will inform students in class on Thursday what their asynchronous work will be.	Work will be posted by teachers on Thursday at 4:15pm on Canvas. Teachers will inform students in class on Thursday what their asynchronous work will be.
Deadlines for assignments are Sunday evening into Monday class time to give adequate time for pathway students. (See Canvas for exact due date)	Deadlines for assignments can be Friday at 4:15 or Sunday evening into Monday class time. (See Canvas for exact due date)
Tutoring available for all students from 8:55 - 10:15 on all Flex Fridays along with the Make Up Test Center during Tutoring Hour/Morning Session.	No tutoring available on these days.

FCS Teacher Workdays and FCS Professional Development days are not considered asynchronous work days. Due dates will not fall on these days.

Tips for Successful Asynchronous Days:

1. Dedicate quiet space and time for students to complete all work to meet all deadlines
2. Find the best place for your student to work at home
3. Check Canvas together to plan the day or create a checklist
4. Get ahead on virtual classes with extra time
5. Complete any missing work with extra time