Section 1116 (c)(2)

The school involves parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely way:

In the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I.A program and if applicable Schoolwide program plan in the school. Section 1116 (c)(3)

Describe how parents are involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I.A program and if applicable Schoolwide program plan in the school.

Flyers Facebook posts emails and announcements are used to inform parents of the meetings so we can plan review and improve upon what is seen as needs for the Title 1A money

In the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy. Section 1116 (c)(3)

Describe how parents are involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy.

This is done at the same meeting where we evaluate the school wide plan

The school provides parents of participating children:

Timely information about the Title I.A programs. Section 1116 (c)(4)(A)

Describe plans to provide information about the Title I.A programs.

We post the information on our website and post the goals in the halls on community involvement boards We also go over all of this information in a board meeting during the school year

A description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessments that are used to measure progress, and the achievement levels of the MAP assessment.

Section 1116 (c)(4)(B)

Describe methods and plans to provide a description and explanation of the curriculum, academic assessments, and MAP achievement levels.

This information is presented and publicized at a board meeting each year as well as at a quarterly Title 1A meeting during the school year
MAP Achievement level information is sent home with students in a flyer and also presented at the parent teacher meetings

Opportunities, as appropriate, to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children. Section 1116 (c)(4)(C)

- Responses to their suggestions as soon as possible. Section 1116 (c)(4)(C)

SHARED RESPONSIBILITY FOR HIGH STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

School-Parent Compact

The School-Parent Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the State's high standards. Section 1116 (d)

- The school jointly develops with parents of Title I.A served children the school-parent compact.

The school-parent compact will

- Describe the ways in which all parents will be responsible for supporting their children's learning. Section 1116 (d)(1)

Make sure they are in school every day possible when not ill
 Check that homework is completed
 Monitor the amount of television watched
 Volunteer in the child's classroom school
 Be aware of the child's extracurricular time and activities
 Stay informed about the child's education by reading all communications from the school and responding appropriately
 Attend parent teacher conferences

- Describe the school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment. Section 1116 (d)(1)

Provide high quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables participating children to meet the standards
 Hold annual parent teacher conferences
 Provide parents with frequent reports on their child's progress
 Be accessible to parents through phone person to person meetings consultation before and after school and during school hours and by scheduling visits
 Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class to observe classroom activities

- Addresses the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum

- Conducting parent-teacher conferences at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed
- Issuing frequent reports to parents on their children's progress
- Providing reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer, and observation of classroom activities
- Ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, in a language that family members can understand
Section 1116 (d)(2)(A) (B),(C),(D)

BUILDING CAPACITY FOR INVOLVEMENT

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, the school

- Provides assistance to parents, as appropriate, in understanding
 - o the Missouri Learning Standards,
 - o the Missouri Assessment Program,
 - o local assessments,
 - o how to monitor a child's progress, and
 - o how to work with educators to improve the achievement of their children.
- Section 1116 (e)(1)*

Describe plans to provide assistance.

During parent teacher conferences as well as daily we educate parents on how to use the parent portal to view their child's missing assignments
Prior to testing each year information is sent home with each student to give to their parents to describe what the MAP is and what the scores mean
This is also addressed again at parent teacher conferences
Weekly Friday Focus emails Facebook posts and messages both on paper and by phone are done where parents are reminded of how to contact teachers
Parents can also log on to our website to email teachers directly
Parents are also here often for extracurricular activities and we find those to be some of the best times that parents will talk freely to teachers

- Provides materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve achievement. Section 1116 (e)(2)

Describe plans to provide materials and training.

This can be done in a variety of ways We do offer supplemental materials to parents as well as books from the library and textbooks to work from Most of the training for this type of thing comes from parents and teachers sitting down or talking on the phone

- Educates teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals, and other school leaders, and other staff, with the assistance of parents, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between parents and the school. Section 1116 (e)(3)

Describe plans to educate school personnel regarding working with parents.

Research shows that when parents are involved grades and attendance rise while discipline referrals decrease We emphasize this to our staff and work to build bridges This is done in parent correspondence as well as PD with speakers and discussion from our school board and administration to staff members

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, the school

- To the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinates and integrates parent involvement programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conducts other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children. Section 1116 (e)(4)

Describe plans to coordinate and integrate.

We have many adult parenting books that we loan out We also support a PAT program so that parents get involved in their child's education early We also fund a PK program through local and state funds

- Ensures that information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to the parents of participating children in a format and, in a language the parents can understand. Section 1116 (e)(5)
- Provides reasonable support for parental involvement activities under this section as parents may request. Section 1116 (e)(14)

Optional additional assurances
