

Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job
Not Covered by Social Security

Employee Name _____ Employee ID# _____

Employer Name Hickman Mills C-1 SD Employer ID# _____

Your earnings from this job are not covered under Social Security. When you retire, or if you become disabled, you may receive a pension based on earnings from this job. If you do, and you are also entitled to a benefit from Social Security based on either your own work or the work of your husband or wife, or former husband or wife, your pension may affect the amount of the Social Security benefit you receive. Your Medicare benefits, however, will not be affected. Under the Social Security law, there are two ways your Social Security benefit amount may be affected.

Windfall Elimination Provision

Under the Windfall Elimination Provision, your Social Security retirement or disability benefit is figured using a modified formula when you are also entitled to a pension from a job where you did not pay Social Security tax. As a result, you will receive a lower Social Security benefit than if you were not entitled to a pension from this job. For example, if you are age 62 in 2013, the maximum monthly reduction in your Social Security benefit as a result of this provision is $395.60. This amount is updated annually. This provision reduces, but does not totally eliminate, your Social Security benefit. For additional information, please refer to Social Security Publication, "Windfall Elimination Provision."

Government Pension Offset Provision

Under the Government Pension Offset Provision, any Social Security spouse or widow(er) benefit to which you become entitled will be offset if you also receive a Federal, State or local government pension based on work where you did not pay Social Security tax. The offset reduces the amount of your Social Security spouse or widow(er) benefit by two-thirds of the amount of your pension.

For example, if you get a monthly pension of $600 based on earnings that are not covered under Social Security, two-thirds of that amount, $400, is used to offset your Social Security spouse or widow(er) benefit. If you are eligible for a $500 widow(er) benefit, you will receive $100 per month from Social Security ($$500 - $400 = $100$). Even if your pension is high enough to totally offset your spouse or widow(er) Social Security benefit, you are still eligible for Medicare at age 65. For additional information, please refer to Social Security Publication, "Government Pension Offset."

Information about Social Security Form SSA-1945 Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security

New legislation [Section 419(c) of Public Law 108-203, the Social Security Protection Act of 2004] requires State and local government employers to provide a statement to employees hired January 1, 2005 or later in a job not covered under Social Security. The statement explains how a pension from that job could affect future Social Security benefits to which they may become entitled.

Form SSA-1945, Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security, is the document that employers should use to meet the requirements of the law. The SSA-1945 explains the potential effects of two provisions in the Social Security law for workers who also receive a pension based on their work in a job not covered by Social Security. The Windfall Elimination Provision can affect the amount of a worker's Social Security retirement or disability benefit. The Government Pension Offset Provision can affect a Social Security benefit received as a spouse, surviving spouse, or an ex-spouse.

Employers must:

- Give the statement to the employee prior to the start of employment;
- Get the employee's signature on the form; and
- Submit a copy of the signed form to the pension paying agency.

Social Security will not be setting any additional guidelines for the use of this form.

Copies of the SSA-1945 are available online at the Social Security website, www.socialsecurity.gov/online/ssa-1945.pdf. Paper copies can be requested by email at ofam.oswm.rqol.orders@ssa.gov or by fax at 410-665-2037. The request must include the name, complete address and telephone number of the employer. Forms will not be sent to a post office box. Also, if appropriate, include the name of the person to whom the forms are to be delivered. The forms are available in packages of 25. Please refer to Inventory Control Number (ICN) 276950 when ordering.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

▶ Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
▶ Give Form W-4 to your employer.
▶ Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

OMB No. 1545-0074

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly (or Qualifying widow(er)) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the online estimator, and privacy.

Step 2: Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs. Do only one of the following.

Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4); or
 (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or
 (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $	_____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $	_____
	Add the amounts above and enter the total here	3	$ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$ _____

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: If you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____

- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
 - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a 2a $ _____
 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____

- 4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld) 4 $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____

- 2 Enter:

{	• $24,800 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)
	• $18,650 if you're head of household
	• $12,400 if you're single or married filing separately

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notices. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

REGISTRATION AGREEMENT

The information provided is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand it is unlawful to withhold or falsify information required on this form. I grant my permission for the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS) to obtain any and all background information authorized by law to process this request. Furthermore, I authorize the DHSS to release the fact that I am a registrant in the Family Care Safety Registry (FCSR) and any related background information to the requester of the FCSR for employment purposes only, as provided in §210.921, subsection 1, subdivisions (1) and (2), RSMo. For purposes of the FCSR, "employment purposes" includes direct employer/employee relationships, prospective employer/employee relationships, and screening and interviewing of persons or facilities by those persons contemplating the placement of an individual in a child care, elder care or personal care setting. I understand that if I dispute the information contained in the FCSR I have the right to appeal the accuracy of the transfer of information to the FCSR within thirty (30) days of receiving the results of the background screening.

NOTICE: The FCSR may choose to deposit the check enclosed electronically as an ACH debit entry to my designated bank account. I understand that my signature below authorizes my financial institution to deduct this payment from my account. In the event that DHSS or its subcontractor is unable to secure funds from my account or I provide insufficient or inaccurate information regarding my account, my obligation to the DHSS will remain unpaid and further collection action may be taken by the DHSS or its subcontractor, including, but not limited to, returned check fees.

WHAT IS THE FAMILY CARE SAFETY REGISTRY?

The Family Care Safety Registry (FCSR), administered by the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS), provides families and employers with a method to obtain background screening information. The Registry, through various state agencies, offers several resources to screen child care, long term care and mental health workers:

- State criminal history and sex offender registry records maintained by the Missouri State Highway Patrol
- Child abuse/neglect records maintained by the Missouri Department of Social Services
- The Employee Disqualification List maintained by the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services
- The Employee Disqualification Registry maintained by the Missouri Department of Mental Health
- Child care facility licensing records maintained by the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services
- Foster parent records maintained by the Missouri Department of Social Services

WHO HAS TO REGISTER?

Any person hired on or after January 1, 2001, as a child care worker or elder care worker, hired on or after January 1, 2002, as a personal care worker, or hired on or after January 1, 2009, as a mental health worker, as provided in §210.906, RSMo, is required to make application for registration in the Family Care Safety Registry within fifteen (15) days of the beginning of employment. Such person who fails to submit a completed registration form to the DHSS without good cause, as determined by the department, is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. Employees and volunteers from non-state and/or federally regulated entities are NOT REQUIRED to register with the FCSR.

HOW DO I COMPLETE THE REGISTRATION FORM?

Registration Type – Check at least one box from the left column for type of registration that best describes your worker category. If no other type applies, select "Voluntary." (A "voluntary registrant" is a person who is not mandated to register with the Family Care Safety Registry pursuant to §210.900 et seq., RSMo.) If you checked Long Term Care / Personal Care, please also make one or more selections from the column on the right for subcategory.

Social Security Number – You must provide your Social Security number pursuant to 19CSR 30-80.030(1). This identifying information, including Social Security number, will be used for internal identification purposes and to conduct background screenings for the resource information listed in paragraph one above.

Personal Information – List your current Last Name, First Name, Middle Name, and any suffix associated with your last name. List any other names by which you may have been known, including maiden names, past married names, and nicknames (attach additional sheets if needed). For identification purposes, list your gender and date of birth.

Contact Information – List your address, city, state, ZIP code, and county. Include your telephone number and email address. We will use this information to notify you of registration results and any background screenings conducted. Email notifications will be encrypted for improved security. To reduce postage costs, the Registry may contact you to request a personal email address if one is not provided.

Employer Associated with this Registration - If you are currently employed by or are seeking employment with a child care or long term care provider, please list the facility name, address, telephone number, and contact person. If registration is not for employment purposes, make a selection from column on right. The employer entered in this section will not receive a copy of the registration notification. Employers eligible to use the Registry for caregiver screenings must make a separate request for your background information.

Registration Agreement – Sign and date the registration form. Your signature will authorize the Family Care Safety Registry to conduct the background screening outlined in §210.903.2, RSMo and to provide the information to requesters for employment purposes, as provided in §210.921.1, RSMo.

WHERE DO I SEND MY REGISTRATION FORM?

Send your completed registration form and photocopy of Social Security card and required fee to the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, ATTN: Fee Receipts, P.O. Box 570, Jefferson City, MO 65102. If you have questions, please call the Registry using the toll-free telephone number, 866-422-6872.

WHEN WILL I KNOW THE RESULTS OF MY BACKGROUND SCREENING?

After the background screening has been completed, you will be notified in writing of the results that will be recorded in the Family Care Safety Registry. You will also be notified in writing each time background screening information is provided. The notification will contain the name and address of the person who made the request and the background information disclosed. The person making the request will be informed that information will be released for employment purposes only, pursuant to §210.921.1, RSMo. Any person using Registry information for any other purpose is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. In addition, state agencies can request information for licensure or regulatory purposes. Prior to disclosing information, the Registry obtains the name and address of the requester, and determines that the request is for employment or regulatory purposes. To ensure you receive these notifications, it will be important for you to notify the Family Care Safety Registry when you have a change in your contact information. Notify the Family Care Safety Registry of changes in personal or contact information using the toll-free telephone number, 866-422-6872, by email to fcsr@health.mo.gov, or by mail to FCSR, PO Box 570, Jefferson City, MO 65102.

WHAT IF I DON'T AGREE WITH THE RESULTS OF MY BACKGROUND SCREENING?

As provided in §210.912, RSMo, you have the right to appeal the information transferred to the Family Care Safety Registry. Your right to appeal is limited to the accuracy of the transfer of information from the state agency that maintains the background information and does not include a right to appeal the accuracy of the substance of the information transferred. An appeal must be filed in writing to the Office of the Director, Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, P.O. Box 570, Jefferson City, MO, 65102, within 30 days of receiving the results of the background screening determination. An administrative appeal shall be set within 30 days of the filing of the appeal and a decision shall be made within 60 days. This right to appeal is in addition to any other appeal rights granted by state law.

Drug-Free Workplace Policy

The Hickman Mills C-1 School District shares in the philosophy of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 and does hereby set forth and declare a policy to provide and maintain a drug-free workplace for all personnel.

It is the policy of the Hickman Mills School District to prohibit the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of a controlled substance on any of the premises or facilities of this district. The district recognizes that any participation in drug abuse in the workplace is a potential hazard to health and safety (to all mankind).

As a condition of employment, employees shall abide by the terms of the policy and further agree to notify the director of personnel services of any conviction of a criminal drug statute for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five days after such conviction. The superintendent or his/her designee shall notify the appropriate federal agency within ten days after receiving notice from an employee, or otherwise receiving actual notice of such conviction violation occurring in the workplace.

Any employee reporting to work and/or conducting district business while under the influence and in violation of this policy shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment and shall be subject to prosecution under federal, state or local law.

Appropriate personnel action will be taken within thirty days of receipt of notice with respect to the work related conviction of an employee. An employee who has been convicted of a controlled substance violation while engaged in work related activities or an employee who has not been convicted of a drug related activity but who voluntarily requests drug related assistance shall be referred to the Substance Abuse Coordinator who shall inform the employee of any available drug counseling, rehabilitation, and any employee assistance programs. The superintendent and/or his/her designee shall require such employee's satisfactory participation in a drug abuse assistance, or rehabilitation program approved for such purposes by a federal, state or local health, law enforcement, or another appropriate agency.

Acknowledgment

I have received and read this communication and realize that the Drug-Free Workplace Policy applies to me as it does to all employees and I agree to abide by the terms of the policy.
