According to the U.S. Department of Education, the Hickman Mills C-1 School District is officially classified as a low-income school district. If you have a Federal Family Education Loan (FEEL), Federal Direct Loan, or Federal Perkins Loan/NDSL, and you are teaching in our District, serving low-income families, you may be eligible to have your loan payments postponed or forgiven.

For more information and instructions on to apply for Teacher Loan Forgiveness, please visit:
