

English 9/10/11 (Special Class)

Literary Terms and Elements Unit

-American Literature Book and World Literature Book

-Various short stories, poems, and video clips.

-Learning: sequencing, symbolism, character, characterization, conflict, plot, point of view, climax, exposition, complication, protagonists, antagonist, setting, suspense, theme, style, imagery, mood, parody, allusion, irony, hyperbole, allegory, flashback, foreshadowing, tone, oxymoron, alliteration, diction, onomatopoeia, motif, melodrama, consonance, pun, satire, resolution, denouement, figures of speech, metaphor, simile, and personification.

The Outsiders by S.E. Hinton

- Read and analyze the book through various activities. Watch the movie.

Argumentative Essay

The Swiss Family Robinson by Johann David Wyss

- Read Timeless Classics Edition and analyze the book through various activities. Watch the movie.

A Midsummer Night's Dream by William Shakespeare

- Read the Timeless Shakespeare edition and analyze the book through various activities. Watch the movie.

Central Idea/Theme

-Text-analysis response using poetry and short stories.

The Hunchback of Notre Dame by Victor Hugo

- Read Timeless Classic Addition and analyze the book through various activities. Watch the movie.

Regents Review

Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare (if time)

- Read the Timeless Shakespeare and analyze book through various activities. Watch the movie.