7:35 am	Information Item Principal Update <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contract cleaning is going well. Bathrooms are looking great, and floors are getting cleaned in all aspects of the school. - This contract cleaning has led to an overage in funds. - Professional Development for Staff: All teachers were training in Canvas which is a new platform for students and parents instead of Teams. This will be continued through AHS. Mrs. Williams is working on getting the Canvas trainers to come to WBMS during post planning to prep for next year. - Teachers also participated in learning sessions at AHS. - Testing and device checks is being prepared for the GA Milestones. - Hiring is happening now, and we are looking for amazing people to come in and fill roles. Most people that are coming in are transfers from other Fulton Co schools. Semester Action Plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Building Relationships: Admin is revisiting the No Place for Hate and Respect Policy with all Compass classes. - Interventions: Remedial students are getting a plan for next year to create a process for supports and documentation that is better than what is happening now. - A reading department is being officially created to help the consistency with remedial and proficiency. Reading classes will be tiered based on needs and performance. 	Ms. Williams
