Two CCPS High School Bands Win Great Atlanta Band Challenge

Mundy's Mill High School and North Clayton High School Receive Checks for Band Program!

JONESBORO - Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) and the Department of Fine Arts is thrilled to congratulate the Mighty Marching Tigers of Mundy's Mill High School and the Mighty Marching Eagles of North Clayton High School and their outstanding achievement in the 4th Annual Great Atlanta High School Band Challenge!

On Wednesday, August 21, 2024, Mundy's Mill High School was awarded a $21,000 check, and North Clayton High School received a check for $14,000. These awards were given in recognition of their exceptional performances, securing their spots among the top three bands in this highly competitive event.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the students of both bands for their dedication and hard work. Their achievements are a testament to the talent and spirit within our schools.

A special acknowledgment goes to our outstanding Band Directors, Mr. Matthew Ross of Mundy's Mill High School and Mr. Joseph Daise of North Clayton High School. Their leadership and commitment have provided invaluable opportunities for our scholars to excel, exemplifying "Education in the Arts and Education through the Arts".

CCPS also expresses deep gratitude to Amy Witherite & 1-800-Truckwreck, and Manni Supreme of Hot 107.9 for their continued support of our CCPS students and the arts. Please join us in celebrating this remarkable achievement as we continue to "Build a Better Tomorrow, Today!"
