

U.S. Constitution Poster Contest

(Sponsored by The Woodbury and Bethlehem Public Libraries)

1. Draw what you love about our Constitution.
2. Answer the questions attached to the back of the poster board provided. Educational material necessary to answer questions can be found at your town or school libraries. No Google!
3. Submit your poster with questions answered by the end of the school day on September 16th, 2024, to your local library or to the school office.

Posters will be displayed in your town library during Constitution Week, (September 16th-20th)

Posterboard is provided for you and can be picked up at your local library or at your school office.
Be as creative as you like!

Posters will be judged on:
Creativity, Knowledge of The U.S. Constitution,
Correct answers to the questions asked, and Neatness.
Do you have a favorite Amendment?

Our Judges are: The Woodbury First Selectman, Barbara Perkinson, The Bethlehem First Selectman, Steve Sordi, Woodbury Library Director, Susan Mutschler, Bethlehem Library Director, Anne Small, and The Directors of The Children's Libraries.
