

POINTS OF PRIDE #36

01 DEER CREEK

On November 10 Deer Creek Elementary hosted another Dragon Dads breakfast and planning session. Dads were encouraged to bring breakfast for their child, to sign up for morning and afternoon drop off and to remain connected to the Deer Creek family. Thank you to Mr. Baldwin the Campus SEL Specialist for hosting this important event.

02 OAKMONT

The Oakmont Eagles dressed to "light up the night with literacy" at their Spooktacular event on Thursday, October 26. Students dressed in their best story book character costume or put on neon colors to enjoy games, painting, snacks and visits from local authors. Families had a great time learning and playing together. Crowley pride...unified!

03 CROWLEY HIGH SCHOOL

Congratulations to CHS senior class representative, Kennedy Battles, on her win as the 2023 Miss Debutante for the Arlington Foundation for Excellence in Education Scholarship Winter Ball this past weekend. Kennedy was escorted by fellow CHS senior, Cameron Coleman. The pair looked stunning in formal attire representing the district with pride!

04 Summer Creek

Teacher Appreciation Day is every day at Summer Creek Middle School. Thank you to our parents James Toma and Gloria Mauga-Toma for gifting our teachers and staff donuts on Wednesday, November 8. The Toma's wanted teachers to know that the role they play in student lives has not gone unnoticed. We appreciate the parental support and involvement!

05 MEADOWCREEK

Recently, Meadowcreek students read over 2000 books within 3 weeks to earn a Story Book Parade. Each student was challenged with reading 5 books and even the pre-k students participated by having books read to them to complete the challenge. Students then paraded around campus as a character from one of the books they read! Shoutout to the Mustangs for creating a culture that celebrates literacy!

06 BILL R. JOHNSON CTE

On Saturday, October 21st, staff at the Bill R. Johnson CTE center joined with the middle schools to host a Middle School Camp. Students were able to experience their top choices from the available programs of study by signing up for three hands on interactive sessions to explore all that CTE had to offer. It was a great collaboration! We are one team with one dream.

07 BESS RACE

The kindness movement encourages students to engage in random acts of kindness. World Kindness Day was celebrated around the globe and right here at home in Crowley ISD schools on November 13. At Bess Race students played the kindness game prompting them to do things like hold the door for someone, leave a kind note or sit with someone new in the lunchroom. What a wonderful way to act like a family!
