

Career and Technical Education (CTE) Program Completer

When a student completes a program of study in any of the Eastern Long Island Academy of Applied Technology programs, recommendations are made to the home school district to grant an endorsement on the student's high school diploma. The district then awards endorsements based on that recommendation. Through rigorous coursework, articulations, and real-world experiences, students completing a program at the Eastern Long Island Academy have the advantage of graduating from high school prepared for both college and the workplace. CTE student completers have:

- Engaged in rigorous, relevant coursework because academics are purposeful and specific to the technical skills being taught. A technical education infuses 21st century skills including problem solving, critical thinking, and the use of innovative tools, resources, and systems.
- Applied what they learned in academic classes. Core academic content is integrated in all CTE programs.
- Demonstrated achievement of specific technical skills as reflected in his/her Employability Profile Report and quarterly grade.
- Earned college credits to give them an extra advantage after earning his/her diploma. Nearly every CTE program connects with a community college, private institution, and/or state university which makes it possible for students to reduce college costs.
- Participated in internships, pre-apprenticeships, and work-based learning opportunities.
- Engaged in local and national clubs, and participated in industry-specific organizations to build and expand interpersonal and leadership skills that enhance academic, personal, and career development.
- Earned industry-recognized certifications and stackable credentials, preparing them for entry level positions in the workforce.
- Gained knowledge of, and competency in, interacting with people of diverse backgrounds.
- Gained competency in the use of technology that is aligned with industry standards.
