8.6 Recommendation re: Award of Bid to Supply Bread & Bakery Products

Richie Wilim, the Director of Child Nutrition Services (CNS), presented to the School Board an overview of the CNS program bid awards, including the background of the request for proposals, the expectations, and the selection process.

Trustee Weekly praised the process for evaluating and selecting the best vendors. Weekly questioned whether there were any known reasons as to why other big companies did not apply, and Wilim responded.

Trustee Weekly also inquired whether there is a backup plan in case a supplier becomes temporarily unavailable and Wilim answered.

Speaker's Card:

Jessica Shade voiced her support for the CNS Department and the new changes aimed at providing meals that better meet students' needs.

Vice President Wells welcomed Wilim, noting that it was his first time speaking to the board. Wells praised Wilim's work and all the positive changes being made to the CNS Department. Wells summarized to the School Board the few questions that he had and the answers he received. Wells also requested confirmation on whether the "not to exceed" amounts remained the same as last year's budget and if that was the targeted budget goal and CBO Edson confirmed.

Trustee MacAvoy welcomed Wilim and thanked him for his dedicated work. Trustee MacAvoy also thanked Jessica Shade for speaking to the board and for her leadership in helping evolve the CNS department services.

President Lawson echoed the previous comments.

CBO Rick Edson addressed the school board to highlight the significant work that has been done since Wilim joined RCSD and to emphasize the positive changes that have already occurred.
