

UNITED PATTERSON PROFILE - WENDI RAMIREZ

Wendi Ramirez is a proud graduate of Patterson High School class of 1983. While Attending Patterson High, Wendi was a Cheerleader for three years and was involved with the Choir Club all four years. Some of her favorite teachers were Mr. Strobe (History/Consumer Economics), Mrs. Hill (Business/Typing), and Mrs. Rossi (Home Economics). Wendi still recalls learning how to bake cookies, sew stuffed animals, and make quilts in Mrs. Rossi's class. Her proficiency in Home Economics even earned her academic recognition from Bank of America. Upon graduation, Wendi attended Modesto Junior College to study Business. In 1984 Wendi married her High School Sweetheart, Joel Ramirez, and had two children, Andrew Ramirez (PHS Class of 2006), and Jessica Ramirez (PHS Class of 2004). In 1993 Wendi started working for the Patterson Joint Unified School District in different positions until finally finding her home as a Senior Payroll Technician, a position she has served in for almost 20 years. Wendi enjoys helping staff when they have questions regarding payroll, insurance, benefits, and more. She also loves working with her payroll team, crediting them for contributing to an enjoyable career that has spanned almost two decades.
