PRE K NEWS

Preschool News: On Tuesday, March 21, the preschool teachers, along with Mrs. Hurley presented a parent workshop. Preschool children attended and participated in the workshop. The first part of the workshop was presented by Mrs. Pierson and Mrs. Pagano and was about the importance of reading to your children and making reading fun! The children put on costumes and used props to act out a story. The children enjoyed being on stage. Fun was had by all! Mrs. Hurley shared nutritious snack ideas for the students. Children were able to enjoy a selection of nutritious snacks that they could easily be eaten during snack at school. Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Fedorczyk presented a power point presentation explaining the components of the preschool report card. The evening ended with Mrs. Green sharing a fun gross motor activity on the LU.

NEWS FROM KINDERGARTEN

The kindergarten classes have been having fun with Dr. Seuss, St. Patrick's Day and spring activities. We have been working very hard in Writer's Workshop writing "All About" books. These books tell their readers something they know a lot about. We are writing 3-4 page booklets and sharing them when we are done. The writing process has been fun! In math, we are working on finding patterns on a 100's chart and counting numbers to 100. We are always reading and working on our phonemic skills. We will be so happy when spring is here to stay!

Mrs. Bessemer

NEWS FROM FIRST GRADE

The children in first grade have made observations of the sun and shadows throughout the day. They used their observations to understand the patterns that occur from morning to night. The children completed an experiment to see how their shadows "moved" as the sun moves each day. They went outside and traced their shadows in the morning. Then in the afternoon they went back out to see the movement. They explained to each other why their shadow moved.
