Title IX

MONTGOMERY COUNTY SCHOOLS
Life-Ready
Globally Competitive

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a Federal civil rights law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs and activites. All educational institutes that receive federal funding must comply with Title IX.

A school has a responsibility to respond effectively and promptly to all reports involving sexual allegations.

Title IX requires that each school district have a Title IX coordinator that is responsible for Title IX Compliance and to ensure that all stakeholders involved with Title IX are properly trained.

- Training completed by MCS employees aligns with policies of NCSBA
- Consulted Max Garner - he has viewed training materials
- All of our employees have access to training materials provide by Campbell and Shatley
- Currently, all of our school employees have completed Title IX training -- Our staff is doing a GREAT job of practicing our procedures we have implemented.
- School Board Members play a crucial role in the Title IX process. To stay in compliance with Title IX, I need to provide training for you.
- Please select a date on the sign up sheet to select a date for training.