PROCLAMATION

National Teacher Appreciation Week

May 3-7, 2021

WHEREAS, Montgomery County Schools is proud to join other school districts and education organizations across the country in celebrating Teacher Appreciation Week (May 3-7) and National Teacher Day on Tuesday, May 4, 2021; and

WHEREAS, Teacher Appreciation Week is one of our most important observances because it brings attention to the teaching profession, which is worthy of honor and praise; and

WHEREAS, success in Montgomery County Schools begins in the classroom, and our teachers are the people who inspire students every day and instill a lifelong love for learning; and

WHEREAS, teachers are more than just instructional leaders – they are also role models, mentors, motivations, listeners, encouragers, caregivers and coaches who significantly impact the lives of children; and

WHEREAS, we recognize that all educators play a significant role in the vitality and economic prosperity of our community because they are the people responsible for shaping our future.

NOW, THEREFORE, to honor all teachers who deserve the utmost respect and adulation for the contributions they make to our schools and for their efforts to positively influence the leaders of tomorrow, the Montgomery County Board of Education proclaims the week of

May 3-7, 2021 Teacher Appreciation Week

in Montgomery County Schools and encourages students, parents, school employees and others to express their appreciation for all of our teachers.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Proclamation be made a part of the minutes of the Montgomery County Board of Education.

Steven W. DeBerry, Chairman

Dale Ellis, Ed. D., Superintendent