Part of History at School: The Wax Museum

What is a Wax Museum?

A Wax Museum is a tribute to individuals from the past or present who have contributed to shaping our culture and history.

What makes a Wax Museum work in school?

Our Wax Museum’s focus has been integrated with Black History Month using the following Standard Course of Study:

5.H.2.2 Explain how key historical figures have exemplified values and principles of American democracy.

5.C.1.4 Understand how cultural narratives reflect the lifestyles, beliefs and struggles of diverse ethnic groups.

Benefits for Students

Create awareness of culture;

Appreciate the contributions of different groups of people;

Build self-esteem and confidence;

Work collaboratively;

Improve on memory;

Build stamina and focus;

Pride in accomplished task.

How do you put on a Wax Museum at school?

We worked on the Wax Museum in 3 phases;

1. Research
2. Practice
3. Performance day

The Wax Museum: A Community Effort

Invitations to all students families, (including those not in 5th grade) were sent out so that everyone could enjoy the history come to life!

The Exhibits

The five major categories of the Museum are (but not limited to)

1. History
2. Entertainment/Politics
3. Science
4. Sports
5. Writers/Artists
