Globally Competitive Students

How Green Ridge Elementary is working to decrease the composite achievement gap in ELA for First and Second Grade students

Green Ridge Elementary's Reading in Motion program

Jennifer Fountain, PE Teacher

GRES CONNECT Teachers

GRES Parents

GRES Students

Reading in Motion

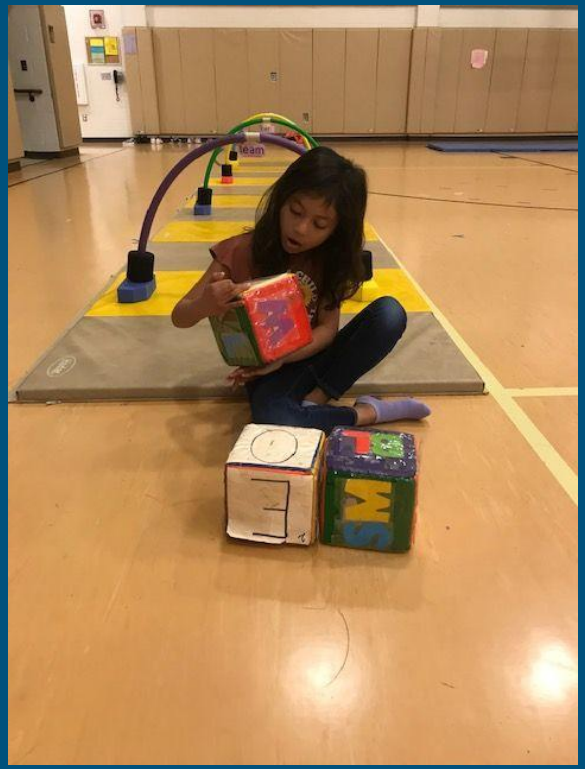

Integrating many of the Science of Reading components such as phonemic awareness, phonics, and sight word recognition, Reading in Motion is a movement-based program that we have implemented at GRES to reduce the achievement gap and help students build their foundational reading skills.

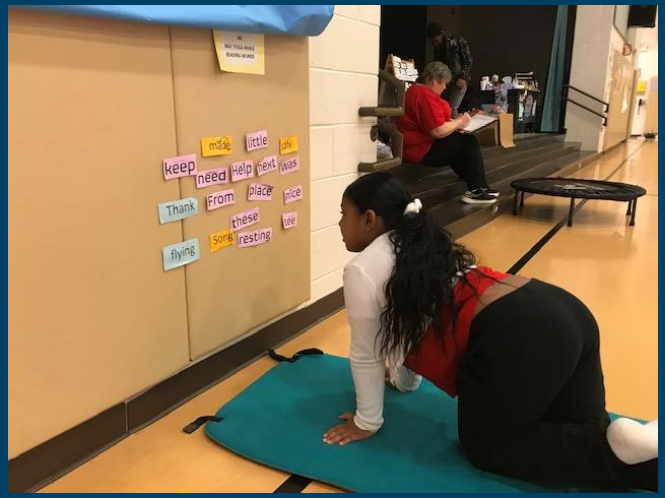

Reading in Motion

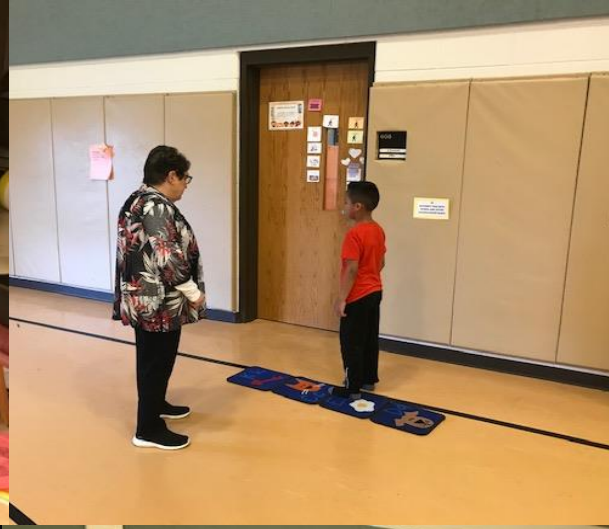

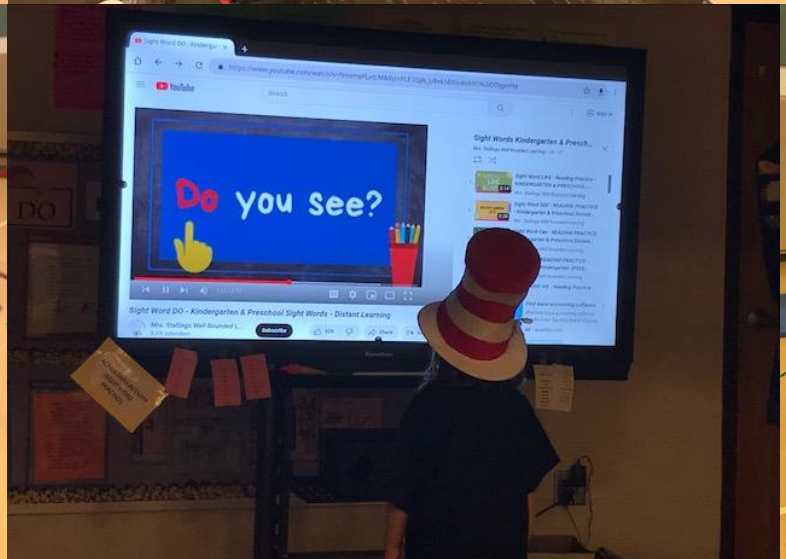

Do you See?
Sight Word DO - Kindergarten & Preschool Sight Words - Distant Learning

This program has improved students' reading skills and confidence! Thank you!

