Use of District Funds for Payment of Meals and/or Refreshments at District Functions

Adopted: 02/16/1988 | Last Revised: 05/20/1997 | Last Reviewed: 04/02/2024

When, in the judgment of the Superintendent, the business of the district requires the presence of officers and/or employees of the school district at district functions and when it is desirable to involve members of the public at district functions, the Superintendent may use district funds for the payment of meals and/or refreshments, excluding alcoholic beverages.

The Superintendent shall develop criteria for the use of district funds for this purpose, which shall include prior authorization as a criterion.
