Our School Philosophy

Victory Charter School is grounded in the belief that when there is low threat and content is highly challenging, accelerated learning takes place.

Our School Mission

Victory Charter School's mission is to develop students who are competent, confident, productive and responsible young adults who possess the habits, skills and attitudes to succeed in life.

PARENT INVOLVEMENT

Parents - During the Open House portion (5:30-6:00 pm) of the evening's festivities at the Barnyard Bash on Sept. 6., our federal programs coordinator & homeless liaison, Mrs. O'Donahue, will be on hand at the front desk to answer questions parents might have regarding these topics. Corresponding handouts will be available at the front desk and the Title IA/Homeless/Youth-in-Transition PowerPoint will be playing on the school's monitors. All of this information as well as the annual required parent notifications, are located on the school's website under the Parent Involvement tab.

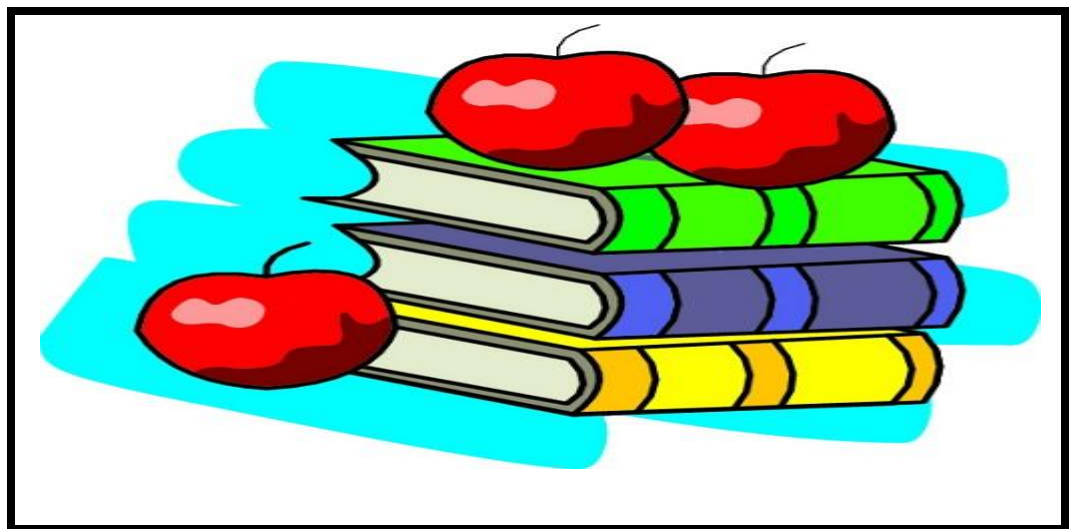

Contact Information: Parents and Guardians, remember if any of your contact information changes during the year, especially your nighttime residence, please let the school office know so that our records are always up to date.

School information provided in another language: If a parent or guardian in the home needs school information translated into another language, please contact the school office at 208-442-9400.

School Calendars: The school calendar for this year and next are on the school's website. The calendars are posted at least one year in advance to help families plan their year without affecting their students' school attendance.

Directory Information

Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Victory Charter School can disclose, without consent, directory information such as a student's name, address, telephone number, etc.. For more information about FERPA and to understand your rights, visit <http://www2.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html>. If you prefer the school not disclose this directory information about your student during the 2024-25 school year, please send an email to office@victorycharterschool.net indicating this preference by Friday, August 30, 2024.
