

South Madison Community School Corporation is committed to maintaining a school environment that is free from any form of harassment based on a protected class such as race, color, or national origin. Harassment of this nature can include behaviors such as racial slurs, stereotypical nicknames, derogatory comments, or any negative references to someone's race, background, language, or customs.

If you believe that your student, or someone you know, has been harassed based on their race, color, or national origin, we encourage you to report it immediately to the Corporation's designated Compliance Officers:

Dr. Laura Miller, Assistant Superintendent
203 South Heritage Way
Pendleton IN 46064

Our Corporation has a zero-tolerance policy for unlawful harassment. The Corporation will promptly investigate complaints of harassment based on a protected class and appropriately address the situation by remedying any harassment found to have occurred according to its policies and procedures. Students who have been found to have engaged in such behavior will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with our School's Student Code of Conduct up to and including expulsion.
