

WORTHINGTON Cotillion EST. 1984

Worthington Cotillion is a series of classes practicing a range of social skills, including firm handshakes and asking someone to dance. Basic ballroom, line dancing and associated etiquette are emphasized for students in 5th and 6th grades. Students will spend time with new and known friends dancing, laughing, and participating in activities designed to increase confidence and break down inhibitions while enjoying themselves in a safe, supportive environment.

Mission

The mission of Worthington Cotillion is to develop self-esteem and build confidence in children by teaching timeless etiquette and social skills in a safe, fun, formal environment while empowering them to respectfully interact with others through dance instruction and table manners.

Testimonials

"I am in awe each week as I watch these kids interact with others throughout our community, laughing, dancing, and sharing a lifelong memory. Thanks Worthington Cotillion for giving my kids an experience, not a dance lesson, not an etiquette lesson but an experience and in that a fun memory."

"I watched both of my kids and their friends grow in confidence each week. They realized through some discomfort comes growth."
