Sankofa Parent Village: Sankofa Parent Village (SPV) is a community of care and support for Parents and Caregivers of Black children. LBUSD is committed to centering the unique needs of our community members and engaging in a way that affirms their cultural identities. We recognize that the Village plays an essential role in helping students attain success in school. As partners, we endeavor to work together to ensure all Black children achieve excellence on purpose. We strive to provide Village members with the information, tools, and skills that will empower them to elevate academic achievement and center social-emotional well-being in their home, school, and community.

A Father's Voice: A Father's Voice is a community of care and support for Fathers and Male Guardians/supporters of Black children. This group offers an opportunity for participants to learn together, socialize, and uplift each other in the collective support of Black children in LBUSD.
