Notes From Fairview's Principal

Introducing the New Fairview Student Family Handbook!

We're excited to share the updated Fairview Student Family Handbook, your go-to resource for all school policies, procedures, and important information. Whether you're new to Fairview or returning, this handbook is designed to help students and families navigate the school year with ease. Be sure to review it to stay informed and prepared!

*Versión en español estará disponible pronto.

Freshman Parent Night & Back to School Night Recap

Thank you to everyone who joined us on Monday, August 26th, for Fairview High School's Freshman Parent Night & Back to School Night! The evening began with a Freshman Parent/Guardian Meeting, where families met our leadership team and received important information to support their 9th graders. Later, families of all grades had the opportunity to meet teachers and explore student schedules during the Back to School Night in the Main Gym.

If you are a Freshman parent and missed the event, please take a moment to review the slides from the event.

We appreciate your participation in making the night a success!

Class Meetings Recap: View the Slides!

Our annual Class Meetings have come and gone, packed with essential information and resources to start the school year strong. If you missed the meetings, you can still catch up by reviewing the slides.

Take a moment to get up-to-date and get a jumpstart on the year.

See you around campus!

Key Information for Your Attention

New Attendance Procedure Update

Please note the updated attendance procedure: If a student arrives within 5 minutes after the bell, they are marked as tardy. If they arrive after 5 minutes, mark them tardy and record the arrival time. There is no "unexcused partial absence" option.

For any questions, please contact Nicole Hindes, Dean of Students, at 720-561-3372 or Nicole.hindes@bvsd.org.

RTD's Zero Fare for Youth Initiative Extended Permanently!

Great news! RTD's Zero Fare for Youth program, which lets anyone 19 or younger ride RTD services for free, is now permanent. No sign-up is needed—just show your student or government-issued ID to ride. This initiative promotes independence and helps build healthier, cleaner communities.

For more information, visit RTD Zero Fare Youth.

Thank you for supporting the next generation of transit users!

Academics

Class Meeting Information

I enjoyed sharing Grad+ info at the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grade class meetings this week. Here are the slides I used. Everything underlined is hyperlinked, so click around for more detail. The slides summarize Grad+ offerings for Fairview students, plus performance measures information for seniors. Reach out if you have any questions, want more details, or need help signing up for anything. I'm here for you!

Club Spotlights

Discover Fairview's Clubs: Weekly Spotlights and Opportunities to Get Involved!

At Fairview, students can join over 75 diverse clubs or start their own. Explore existing clubs like Student Council, Fairview National Honor Society, Black Knights Robotics, and more by clicking here.

Each week, we'll feature a different club in our spotlight, showcasing their activities and impact on our community. Stay tuned to see how our students shine through their involvement!

This week, we're excited to highlight the AI Club. The Artificial Intelligence (AI) Club offers weekly hands-on activities, guest speaker sessions, and competitions for students interested in AI, including machine and deep learning. Last year, we held creative events like building neural networks with food and using color-by-number exercises to explain computer vision. If you're interested in AI, our club has something for you!

School Life

New Library Program: Exploring Title IX: A College-Bound Book Club

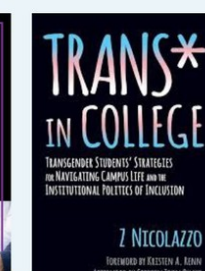

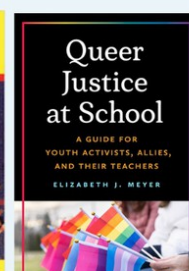

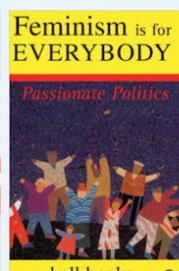

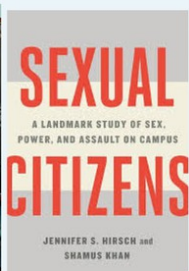

In partnership with CU Professor Dr. Elizabeth J Meyer, we are offering a new library program that will be held during Block Lunch on the First Wednesday of every month. This book group is designed for college-bound students who have an interest in learning more about issues connecting to Title IX and how they connect to students' lives in high school and college. We plan to read a variety of texts that explore young people's experiences with gender, sexuality, culture, embodiment, safety, equity, and diversity in schools. Come be a part of a group that will prepare you for college-level readings and discussions! Email Dr. Kaplan, your FHS Librarian to sign up or to learn more. You may also sign up in the library at the Circulation Desk.

BVSD NEWS

Join your school's carpool (and biking and walking) network

Dear Parents or Guardians,

Are you interested in having your children carpool, walk, bike, or ride the RTD bus to and from school with students from other families in your school? Now is the time to join your school's secure SchoolPool network.

<https://mywaytogo.org/s/schoolpool-fairviewhga14>

WayToGo - SchoolPool, which is a program of the Denver Regional Council of Governments (DRCOG), is once again providing BVSD with its own Transportation Network. Each of BVSD's 53 sites has its own secure network. It's free and there is no obligation to participate. Instructions on how to register for SchoolPool are listed below.

Click on your school's link to get started: Fairview

Using this secure website, you can register to find and contact interested families from your school. You can register with your home address or with a nearby intersection.

WayToGo's primary goal is to reduce traffic congestion and pollution, so rest assured your information will only be shared with other families at your school who have signed up. It will not be shared with third parties.

For more information on SchoolPool, please click on this link or email

SafeRoutes@bvsd.org.

Sincerely,

BVSD Transportation Services
