

SALT LAKE CITY
SCHOOL DISTRICT
Your Best Choice

Gifted & Talented

24-25 Assessment Calendar

When will my student be assessed within the year?
When can I see assessment results?
Students can only test once in a 12-month period.

First Weeks of School

- Who: Non-district-wide assessed students who are new to district
- What assessment:
 - 1st or 2nd grade: CogAT Screener
 - 4th, 5th, 6th grade: Full CogAT
- No parent sign-up needed
- Assessment results will be populated in Parent Portal by October 11th

Spring Gradewide

- Who: SLCSD Gradewide K & 3rd graders
- What assessment:
 - K: CogAT Screener
 - 3rd: Full CogAT
- No parent sign-up needed
- Assessment results will be populated in Parent Portal by mid-April

Appeal Application Deadlines

- AAMP 24-25: September 27th
 - Notification of outcome by Oct 11th
- Magnet (for 2nd semester): December 1st
 - Notification of outcome by Dec 20th
- Magnet (for 25-26 school year): May 4th
 - Notification of outcome by May 22nd
- Magnet (for 25-26 school year): July 31st
 - Notification of outcome by August 15th

March Opt-In Steps

- Who: Any Non-SLCSD or Open Classroom K or 3rd, any 6th or 7th
- What assessment:
 - K: CogAT Screener
 - 3rd, 6th, 7th grade: Full CogAT
- Sign up on the ELP website Nov-Jan
- Assessment happens in March
- ELP Department will mail results & eligibility

Neighborhood Eligibility Letters

- Advanced Academic & Mentoring Program (AAMP) Opt-in letters are sent home, from the school's AAMP teacher, during the first few weeks of school
- AAMP groups start the week of Sept 9th
- For those not eligible for neighborhood that want to be considered, ask your AAMP teacher for appeal paperwork.

Magnet Eligibility & Letters

- Magnet eligibility letters are sent directly from the ELP Department, separate from assessment scores
- They are sent immediately after each assessment session
- Those who do not meet eligibility requirements will not receive a letter