RHS Seniors Seek Sunshine

On Friday, August 30th, the RHS Class of 2025 participated in a fairly new tradition: Senior Sunrise. At 6:00AM, senior students gathered at The Joe to snap selfies, reflect on memories, and share their hopes for the upcoming school year.

UPCOMING EVENTS

September 10: School Board Meeting
September 11: Underclassmen Picture Day
September 13: Food Drive at Football Game
September 18: Act 80 Day-No School!

Stewart Shines at SkillsUSA

Recent RHS graduate Liam Stewart traveled to Atlanta, Georgia in June to compete at the SkillsUSA national competition. At the two-day event, Stewart placed fifth out of forty-seven participants from across The United States. Judges found both his written and task portions to be particularly impressive. Great work, Liam!

McIntosh Makes Beautiful Music

RHS senior Sarah McIntosh spent part of her summer sharing her gift of music. From June 22nd-28th, she attended the Ohio Scottish Arts School at Baldwin Wallace University. While there, she played alongside other distinguished harpists. She also won the Clan Lamont Scholarship. Congratulations!

Hoby Conference Inspires Future Leaders

Over the summer, Ringgold High School students Izzie Hooper, Sarah Palmer, Mia Scalise, and Rhianna Tolliver were nominated by school counselors and teachers to join fellow sophomore students from other area high schools for the Hoby-Pennsylvania West Youth Leadership Conference. The event, held at Washington and Jefferson College from June 14th-16th, featured Hoby alumni and several guest speakers designed to impart and inspire leadership skills in attendees. One notable speaker was Gami-Lou Beli, who shared a speech about serving her community as Miss Monongahela River USA and inspiring students to work toward their dreams. Students who attended worked together to share ideas about how they can better their schools and communities and strategies they can use to bring those ideas to fruition. Students were grouped by a personality test and separated from their sending school peers in an attempt to foster new friendships. The weekend ended with an incredible talent show and a discussion for parents to show off the students' ideas. What an incredible experience for our future leaders!

Students Learn Life-Saving Skills

Mrs. Lutska's First Aid and CPR class wasted no time—jumping right in to learn how save lives. Today, they learned the basics of cardiopulmonary resuscitation(CPR), as well as how to use an automated external defibrillator (AED).

Ram Football Almost Catches a Win

On Friday, the Ram football team traveled to Indiana, PA. The game was a fierce battle, but in the end, Indiana was victorious. The team should be incredibly proud of itself, as everyone played incredibly well! During halftime, the Ram Band delighted the audience with their Fleetwood Mac themed show.

Spotlight On: Varsity Golf

Boys' Soccer Nets a Win

On a humid Thursday evening, the boys' varsity soccer team welcomed the Mustangs from Laurel Highlands. Three minutes into the game, a beautiful cross from Michael Stasko found the foot of Jack Brodak, giving the Rams an early 1-0 lead. Although Ringgold would have several other key chances, the boys were unable to finish. The Rams took the 1-0 lead into halftime. The second half saw several yellow cards, three for the Mustangs and one for the Rams, and plenty of fouls. The Rams' defense was stingy with any opportunities in front of keeper Donovan Fortuna. Ringgold had a few more key chances in front of the net, but no one was home to give the Rams the insurance goal. In the end, the Rams were victorious; they advance to 3-0 on the season and 2-0 in the section. The boys have a week off before they welcome Trinity to the Joe. Congrats boys...celebrate!
